Off The Record

Cool, Man

By SUZANNE WIGG

A real cutie to come along this week is "My Baby" by Ken Nordine on Dot. A real progressive type combo takes off with a cool jazz background. Then Ken Nordine steps in to tell all about his baby. "I love my baby and my baby loves me" he says. They go out together to a place called "Far Out."

"My baby looks at me with that special look she has. I look back with that special look I get when my baby looks at me with that special look she has." In between these strange sentences we hear some "Far out," "crazy," "real cool" rhythm played by a nice combination of piano, bass and drums.

THE PAYOFF comes at the end when "baby" turns out to be a real baby. This baby utters some "Shoo-bee-doo" with a solid beat. Even six month old babies can earn a living these days in the record business. This probably sounds ridiculous from the above description but it is really quite fascinating once you get used to it.

On the other side of the disc is another charmer called "Used to Think My Right Hand Was Lighter Than My Left." This is a take-off on the Beatnik type of poetry then is read to jazz music. This disc is just different enough to take off like a big bird and sell a million copies.

If Rod Lauren does not become a great success it will not be RCA's fault. According to the many pictures in the brochure, Rod plays the trombone, is an actor, paints a few sketches, is an acrobat, a skin diver, is proficient in archery and by the way he also sings. The two songs in this first release are "No Wonder" and "If I Had A Girl." This boy is almost a little too much a carbon copy of Johnny Mathis in singing style but has a fine voice quality. The trend nowadays is to find a nineteen-year-old goodlooking, well built specimen and then hope that he can sing. It seems the teenagers are going more for the handsome singers than for the singing singers. However, Rod passes all the physical tests and sings with an excellent voice to boot. The two songs are ballads, well arranged, well written and well sung.

"DO-REMI" is a brand new song from a brand new musical "The Sound of Music" by Rodgers and Hammerstein and starring Mary Martin. The song, on the light side, is almost what the title implies — an explanation of the words which make up the musical scale by the way to the children. This recording is sung by Anita Bryant with children's chorus on Carlton label. It's a charming little melody and will probably be one of the big songs from this show.

Peggy Lee has recorded a snappy tune called "You Deserve" on Capitol. Backed up by light rhythm and punctuated hand clapping, Peggy bounces through the melody with all of her years of "know-how" behind her. This gal is a real artist whether she is singing ballads, novelties, jazz, anything.

Capitol dropped off a couple of other goodies this week. "Love Is The Only Thing" by Tennessee Ernie Ford is a "Dry Bones" type of song with a nice lift and a happy message. "There's a little bit of good in the worst of us and there's a little bit of bad in the best of us but there's a little bit of love in all of us and love is the only thing."

IF YOU LIKE the Kingston Trio you'll like this one — "Coo-Coo-U" on Capitol. It sounds like a calypso folk tune and the Kingston Trio sings and play it with all the gimmicks they can muster. It's a catchy thing and the silly words are kind of fascinating.

Destined to be a big seller is "Lucky Devil" by Carl Dobkins, Jr. on Decca. It's a rock-billy but not too offensive. The beat is kept light enough, the tune is pleasant and Carl Dobkins, Jr. is one of the better rock singers.

'Fireman's Flame' At CTR

Good and evil collide head on and morality with comic overtones is analyzed when the simple, honest virtues of the Bluebird volunteer firemen are tested to the utmost by the shabby sophistication and deceit of the Redheart volunteers in "The Fireman's Flame," an old-fashioned melodrama co-produced by Catholic Theatre of Rochester. Evening performances are listed for tonight, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 20, 21, 22 at the CTR Auditorium, Clifford at Hudson Aves.

Heading director William Andia's cast are "Goodies," personified by Harold Bell Jr. as leader of the Bluebirds and Kathleen Hanlon as his romantic interest. Leading lights in the cause of evil are David Hill as the rascally Redheart chief and Barbara Flanagan as the mysterious and faintly continental Vesta Violet.

JAMES MILLS will be seen as Adolphus Vanderpool, "The Old Fox of Wall St." with Maureen Murphy portraying a confidant of the firemen who has seen better days. Principal songs and dances for the Bluebirds will be handled by Donn Webb and Richard Harnciel, whose cohorts include Carl Zollo, Tom Linnear and Bill Schubert. Second in command for the Redhearts is Frank Buttrick, assisted by Howie Strassman, Ken Bergen and Dennis Rita.

Diplomacy Research Notre Dame — (NAC) — The Rockefeller Foundation has awarded the University of Notre Dame a $75,000 grant to support a five-year research program on "the assumptions, methods and issues of contemporary diplomacy."

Looking down the Avenue we see that the Paramount Theater has "CAREER," the show business story done in honest-to-goodness fashion for ADULTS ONLY. Dean Martin, Shirley MacLaine, and Carolyn Jones hold the major parts in this 99 minute movie which has interest with a flaw or two along the route.

Further down the street we find the Palace Theater with a "B" movie, "Five Gates to Hell." Maybe next week things will be better.

ELMIRA — What does the weekend hold for you? Well, it looks pretty good with "HOUND DOG MAN" at the Colonial Theater for the WHOLE FAMILY. The teenagers will tell you that the Fabulous Fabian is the star of this entertaining flicker. ADULTS ONLY can see at the Elmira Theater "THEY CAME TO CORPORA" filled with top acting and action.

HORNELL — The Majestic Theater has its eye open for ADULTS ONLY this weekend with the showing of the drama, "THE BEST OF EVERYTHING."

While children take a momentary delight in the possession of any thing, they have a CONTINUOUS PRIDE IN THE POSSESSION OF "OUR SCHOOL." This childlike pride grows through AN ADOLESCENT FORGETFULNESS to a MATURE GRATITUDE for the institution in which their adult personalities took root and showed the first signs of growth. The youngsters in CHEMUNTOTTY IN INDIA will very happily say "THEY ARE BUILDING OUR SCHOOL" when we can send their pastor $3,000 IN YOUR NAME.

ANY PERSON YOU NAME A GIFT CARD WITH PRESSED FLOWERS FROM THE HOLY LAND will be sent to you — OR ANY PERSON YOU NAME — when you send in your offering for CHRISTMAS MASSES — or your CHRISTMAS GIFT and 10¢ for Mass intention, $15 for a check $15 or $10 for a cash offering. The same card goes to THE OR TO OTHERS YOU NAME, a member of the CATHOLIC NEAR EAST MISSIONS. Individual Annual Membership — $1, Individual Perpetual Membership — $20, Family Annual Membership — $5, Family Perpetual Membership $100.

THANKSGIVING DAY WILL BE A GRATEFUL DAY FOR YOU AS YOU REMEMBER THE NEAR EAST MISSION IN YOUR WILL.

"SURE, AND YOU'RE ONE OF OUR OWN" — said the old Irish lady to the priest who frowned when she did not treat him with the same deference as she did the dignified Monsignor. In a very literal sense JOHN and AUGUSTINE will be "YOUR OWN" if you can send $100 for each year of their six-year study course.

THEY WILL DO ANYTHING FOR THE SISTERS." This is the compliment paid to so many men and women because of their generous devotion to "THE SISTERS." You can do something MORE FUNDAMENTAL. Your gift of $150 a year for two years will make it possible for two hopeful girls TO BE SISTER CELESTINE and SISTER LAURENCE with the Basilian Sisters in LEBA, NON.

YOUR CHRISTMAS OFFERING TO THE LEFER FUND will help our pain-filled patients find the TENDERNESS OF THE CHRIST-CHILD through YOUR GIFT-GIVING HANDS.

OLD FASHIONED MELODRAMA — With bated breath heroine Kathleen Hanlon listens to the schemes of villain David Hill in Catholic Theatre's production of 'Fireman's Flame.'

Watching The Screen

'Uneasy Robbery'

A torrent of trouble with inter-racial overtones booms in "ODDS AGAINST TOMORROW" at the Loew's Theater for ADULTS ONLY. Robert Wise, this year's Academy Award-winning director, chooses a story of racial distrust for his fiction.

HARRY BELAFONTE gives a powerful performance of a Negro nightclub singer and the same time being troubled by a $7500 gambling debt and a tough trio's pressure to pay. This is disconcerting because the alert Belafonte could find a way to throw off the debt and hoodlums. But, here he is — listening to an inept plot to rob a small bank.

In another household, Robert Ryan, rebellious at life, remembers a prison record and shamefacedly accepts financial help from the generous woman he loves, depicted by Shelley Winters. His rugged acting is best when he restrains temper, though bailed to fight by a tavern youth.

Belafonte and Ryan are thrown together in the shoddy

Miss Fraher Wed In Auburn

Auburn — Miss Sonja Ann Fraher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fraher of 100 North Division Street, Auburn, and Peter D. Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ward of 23 Hoffman Street, Auburn, were married Nov. 7 in St. Mary's Church.

The Rev. Paul Brennan, cousin of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony. The Pupal blessing was bestowed upon the couple.

Virginia Movie

14th Century Life in Williamsburg, Virginia will be featured in the dramatic color film program to be presented at Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences on Sunday, afternoon, Nov. 22, at 2:30 p.m. and again at 3:30 p.m.

THEY CAN'T LIVE ON THE PAST
Your Missal devotion will tell you of the GREAT CIVILIZATION AND CULTURE which marked the age of ST. CATERINE (Nov. 21st) and ST. FELIX (Nov. 21st) in the Near East. Their father's conversion of our time are proudly noted in this rich heritage. BUT THEY CAN'T LIVE IN OUR PAST. They need FOOD, and shelter, and FOOD, and education, and FOOD. YOUR GIFT OF $10 or $15 for a CHRISTMAS REVENUE FOOD PACKAGE will help their families for the other 365 days of the year. TO APPRECIATE THESE FINER THINGS THEY MUST FIRST HAVE FINE FOOD. MONSIGNOR RYAN, our representative in Palestine, WILL HAVE AN ESPECIALLY JOYOUS CHRISTMAS IF, in your name, he can give FOOD PACKAGES TO HIS REFUGEES. And he will send you an OLIVE SHED ROBBERY FROM THE HOLY LAND for each $10 OFFERING.
