Memorial Rite For Elmira, KC

Deceased members of Elmira Council 229, Knights of Columbus, were remembered at an impressive memorial service Sunday night, Nov. 22.

Seven departed Knights, who died within the past 12 months, were remembered, in particular: They were: John F. O'Dea, Joseph E. O'Leary, Michael O'Connor, Matthew E. Kennedy, James E. Carr, George M. Peter and Francis B. O'Connor.

The Rev. Bartholomew J. O'Brien, assistant pastor of St. Peter and Paul's Church, was the main speaker at the part of the service held at Columbus Center.

Also speaking were the Rev. William L. Reed, assistant pastor of St. John the Baptist Church, and Joseph H. Burrihan, a past grand knight.

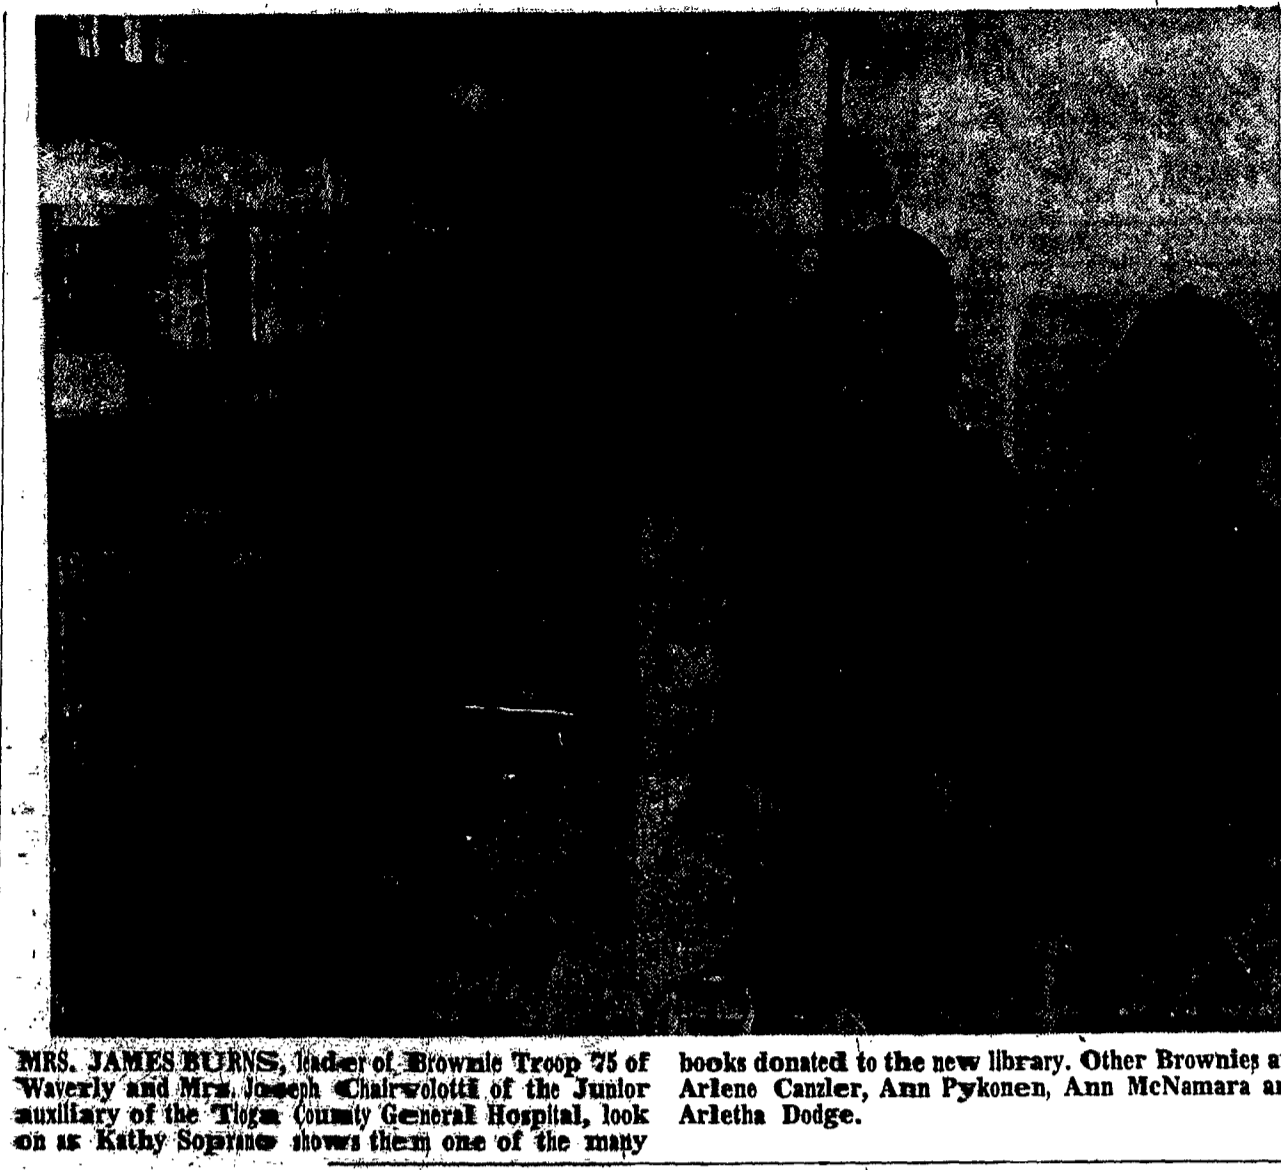

The service began with a march from Columbus Center to St. John the Baptist Church behind the Fourth Degree honor guard.

Father Reed led the group in the recitation of the Rosary and the Rev. Raymond G. Heisel, pastor of St. John's Church, celebrated Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Homemakers' Contest Draws DeSales Girls
Geneva - Thirteen senior girls participated in the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow. Tests were administered at the school on Dec. 1.

This is a nationwide contest and the girl ranking first or second in her state may win a $1800 or a $500 scholarship. In all 102 scholarships are awarded.

MRS. JAMES BURNS, leader of Brownie Troop 75 of Waverly and Mrs. Joseph Chairvolotti of the Junior auxiliary of the Triola County General Hospital, look on as Kathy Soprin shows them one of the many books donated to the new library. Other Brownies are Arlene Candler, Ann Pykonen, Ann McNamara and Arletha Dodge.

Brownies Make Tea, Election Slated, Holy Hour Book Offerings

To Hospital
Waverly - Making the first donations of books to the new Triola County General Hospital Library for patients were Brownies of St. James Church Troop 75 in Waverly.

Under their yearly community project, the Brownies donated approximately 100 bound books and several clean paperbacks. Mrs. Mary Ellen Chairvolotti donated one book in memory of Miss Kathleen O'Brien who died in August.

Also among the first donors was Mrs. Christian W. Kautler of Athens, Penn., who gave 22 books.

The Junior Auxiliary of the Hospital will continue the task of obtaining more books for it was through their efforts as well as that of Manly Seidman, former administrator of the hospital, that the library was made possible.

Annual January Tea of Chemung-Schuyler Deanery Council of the Living Rosary presented by members of Court St. Rita, Mrs. F. P. Hommel, Deanery president, presided at the business meeting.

DEANERY WOMEN are invited to make a Holy Hour on each First Friday at St. John the Baptist Church from 1:15 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. by the pastor, Rev. Raymond G. Heisel. Christmas programs were shown and affiliate organizations urged to buy at least one package of cards.

Mrs. Raymond Grignani, Family & Parents Education chairman, gave ideas applicable to family customs to be used during the coming Advent and Christmas seasons.

Mrs. Clarence O'Brien, Organization & Development chairman reminded officers of affiliate organizations to introduce new members and to ask them to attend the regular monthly meetings.

Mrs. Florence Hughes, Spiritual Development chairman, reported on spiritual activities conducted by affiliate groups. December will be stressed by advocating a Christlike Christmas, and January will be the Chair of Unity Octave. She gave out memoranda on these two spiritual projects.

Mrs. Hommel asked for a comprehensive report of activities from affiliate presidents from September to December to be re-submitted to the Rochester Diocesan Council.

Mrs. Francis Widman, Cooperating with Catholic Charities chairman, gave a report from affiliates that included work from individual parishes for their convents, collecting food for needy families, hospital volunteer work, Arctic League, St. Saviour Monastery, retarded children and the Community Chest.

Mrs. Widman will form a committee to speak before groups to familiarize members with the need for aid for retarded children. The Chemung-Schuyler Deanery will sponsor a retarded child's schooling for one month, one child in Chemung County and one in Schuyler. Books offered for sale include: "Mental Health is a Family Affair," "How to Help Your Handicapped Child," "New Hope for the Retarded Child."

Mrs. P. P. Hommel was appointed Diocesan Chairman of Cooperating with Catholic Charities by Mrs. Richard Weider, new diocesan president.

An interesting summary of Mrs. Hommel's trip to Washington to attend the dedication of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception was given. The National Council's officers in Washington was described.

The Mother Seton Committee of the Ladies of Charity will hold a Christmas party at the residence of Mrs. Joseph E. Maloney, 419 Grove St., at 1:30 p.m.

According to Mrs. Ronald Pritchell, chairman, the members will wrap Christmas presents for the County Home to be given at a Christmas party for them at a future date.

St. Elizabeth of Hungary
Mrs. Joseph J. Dunham and Mrs. Marie L. Bayler are co-chairmen of the Christmas supper and meeting of the St. Elizabeth of Hungary Committee of the Ladies of Charity. It will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 8, at 8:30 p.m. at the residence of Mrs. Charles McCarthy, 1008 Oak St.

Mrs. James E. Coney, chairman of Christmas activities, will report on gifts to a fourth and a teenager. The members are distributing window stickers with the slogan "Put Christ Back Into Christmas" on them.

St. Anne de Boulogne
A Christmas dinner and meeting will be held by the St. Anne de Boulogne Committee of the Ladies of Charity, Tuesday, Dec. 8, at 6:30 p.m. at the Hickory House.

Mrs. Myrtle A. Edwards, party chairman, announces Mrs. Joseph B. Roppo, committee advisor, will be their guest. Each member will bring articles for a lavette sponsored by Catholic Family Service.

A short business meeting will follow the dinner.

St. Rose of Lima
An Advent dinner and presentation will be held by the St. Rose of Lima Committee of the Ladies of Charity, Tuesday, Dec. 8, at 6:30 p.m. at the Pines Restaurant.

46 Elmiraans Received In AOH Degree Rite

Fifty-six Elmira area women became members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians Ladies' Auxiliary during charter degree ceremonies Sunday afternoon, Nov. 29 at Columbus Center, Elmira.

Following the reception of members, the election and installation of officers for the new unit took place.

A degree team from Syracuse, headed by Mrs. Marie Scallin, Onondaga County Ladies' auxiliary president, was in charge of the day's ceremonies.

THE NEW GROUP will be known as the Msgr. John J. Lee Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians in America, Ladies' Auxiliary.

This is the same division name as the male unit which was chartered Feb. 15, 1953. Both divisions are named for the longtime pastor of St. Peter and Paul's Church, the late Msgr. John J. Lee.

A ham supper was served to about 100, including husbands and officers installed were: Mrs. Thomas F. Coggins, of the incoming members.
