Corning Doctor Talks At CDA Smorgasbord

Corning — A smorgasbord dinner last week attracted 80 members of Court St. Joseph, Catholic Daughters of America, to the CDA rooms, with Mrs. Hazel Gouline and Mrs. Mary Hyder acting as hostesses.

Following the dinner, Dr. Thomas Nasser, local physician, explained the different types of cancer. He said that many times cancer is curable if the patient visits his physician at the first symptoms.

HE SAID THAT 150,000 die unnecessarily each year, because they do not heed this warning. He stated that outside of the educational centers, the cancer clinic at Corning Hospital is the only one of its kind in New York State.

Dr. Nasser showed a film to explain his talk further. Commentary with the film is given by Mrs. Hazel Gouline.

Parishioners Slate Yuletide Party

The Immaculate Heart Society of Saint Peter and Paul's Church, Elmira, will hold its Christmas party Wednesday, Dec. 9 in the parish hall following Benediction in the church at 7:45 p.m.

THE PROGRAM scheduled for the evening includes a short business meeting, entertainment and refreshments. Any member desiring may bring a toy for the needy.

Prospective members and women of the parish are welcomed.

Mrs. Robert W. Gamer is general chairman.

Nazareth Students Take Three CDA Scholarships

Winners of the Catholic Daughters of America Scholarships were announced this week by Rev. William M. Roche, Diocesan Superintendent of Schools. They are: Miss Patricia Coleman, Nazareth, N.Y.; Miss Mary Anne Steve, Clyde, N.Y.; and Miss Mary K. Carpenter, Watkins Glen, N.Y. All are students at Nazareth College.

THE CDA Scholarships were awarded on Nov. 10 at Nazareth College by Father Roche, Sister Rose Angela, Dean of the College, and Mrs. Mary M. Donahue, C.D.A. State Treasurer, were present to congratulate the recipients. Winners of the scholarships receive $200 annually for a maximum of three years. Candidates are judged on the basis of evidence of personal integrity, high regard for spiritual and moral values, and qualities of leadership and scholastic ability.

KC Head To Talk At Clauss Dinner

Knights of Columbus Supreme Director William E. Burke of Utica will be the principal speaker at the District Dinner-Dance, honoring District Deputy Edward A. Clauss, Saturday night, Dec. 12 at Columbus Center, Elmira.

Announcement of the acceptance by the nationally-known speaker was made by Thomas F. Coggins, general chairman.

EDWARD A. CLAUSS

The event will be a testimonial to Deputy Clauss for his many years of faithful service to the Knights of Columbus, at many levels — council, district and state.

DEPUTY CLAUSS is currently serving his fifth term as the head of the 73rd District, which stretches across a portion of the Southern Tier of the state, roughly from Owego to Bath.

He is a past grand knight of Elmira Council 229 and a past faithful navigator of Elmira Fourth Degree Assembly.

The energetic district deputy has also labored long as president of Columbus Center, having filled this post since August, 1958.

Grand Knight Frank J. Kubiak has issued a letter to all Council 229 members, urging they make every possible effort to attend the affair.

THE EVENT is being sponsored by Council 229, with sup-

Watkins Court Women Meet

Watkins Glen — Court Lourdes No. 628 Catholic Daughters of America met Nov. 3 in St. Mary's Center with Grand Regent Monica Sharad presiding. A report was given by Mrs. Marion Cole of a successful Bake Sale held in October.

A DATE WAS set for a social gathering of members for a pre-holiday dinner to be held at the Hotel Watkins on Dec. 15 with Mrs. Harold Schultz, chairman.

Also a tentative date of Jan. 14 was set for a card party to be held at the Center with Mrs. Elmer Worth, chairman.

Word was received later that Miss Mary Kay Carpenter, a freshman at Nazareth College, had been awarded the annual Catholic Daughter scholarship. Miss Carpenter's mother, Mrs. John W. Carpenter, is financial secretary of Court Lourdes.
