

Art Faculty Exhibits Work

The Art Department Faculty exhibit now on display at Nazareth College is attracting favorable attention not only among the Art Department students, but among other students and faculty as well.

EXHIBITORS ARE Sister Magdalen, chairman of the Department, Paul Richter, Miss Patricia Walsh and Miss Angela Firth. Their work includes oils, water colors, sketches, portraits, ceramics and sculpture.

4-H Schedules Cookie Sale

A Christmas Cookie Sale will be held by the 4-H Club of Holy Rosary Parish, Sunday, Dec. 13 in the school hall, Lexington Ave. from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Cookies baked by the girls, as well as assorted Christmas candies and fruit cake, will be on sale.

MRS. DONALD DeFRANCE and Mrs. Francis Scheidt are in charge of arrangements and will be assisted by a committee of 4-H mothers.

Proceeds will be used for the girls' 4-H Camp Fund.

Roof Beams For Greece Church

New St. Lawrence Church in the western section of the Town of Greece is raced to completion to care for over 700 Catholic families in that area. They currently attend Mass in the Ridgecrest Shopping Center in a chapel outfitted by parishioners for religious services. Father Edward Shamon, pastor, said he hopes to be in the new church by Easter. This week a huge crane swung roof beams into position. (Courier Journal photo by Paul Contestable)

Mrs. Hooley Elected Head Of Corning Nurses' Group

Corning — Mrs. Curtis Hooley, a nurse in the local public school system was elected president of the Corning Council of Catholic Nurses at the annual meeting last week, with Mrs. Alfred Connaughton elected treasurer.

The other officers are: Mrs. Norman Schwartzman, vice president and Miss Lucille O'Neill, secretary.

OUTGOING OFFICERS, Mrs. Raymond Older and Mrs. B. J. Smith, were thanked for their efforts. The Rev. James Slattery, moderator, was also commended for his work.

The speaker was the Rev. E. Charles Bauer, Catholic chaplain at the Newark State School, who spoke on the different aspects of the school for retarded of all ages.

Father Bauer said that the school houses over 4,000. He told of admission procedures, the educational facilities, its occupational therapy program, the recreation and his own spiritual program to help these people.

He said he has placed his parishioners under the patronage of St. John Bosco, patron of youth. He stressed the friendliness of the people at Newark and how they want others to be friendly to them. He said this was most gratifying.

The refreshments table was decorated in a Christmas motif by the co-chairmen, Mrs. Connaughton and Mrs. Joseph Daley, assisted by Mrs. Frank Sprague, Mrs. Thomas Galvin, Mrs. Peter Martuscello, Miss Helen Harvey, Mrs. Older and Mrs. William McCarthy.

Daughters To Fete Parents At Dance

Freshmen at Nazareth Academy will entertain their parents at a party in the school gymnasium Friday, Dec. 11, from 8 to 11 p.m.

Square and round dancing will be featured in a Christmas setting arranged by members of the decorations committee. Sam Cascino and his orchestra will play old and new numbers. Mr. Raymond Nary will be caller.

STUDENTS PLAN to make this first Parent-Daughter Party a get-acquainted time among students and parents.

Committee chairmen are: Christine Graf, clean-up; Mary Jane Polls, refreshments; and Kathleen Repp, Kathleen Hennekey, and Marylynne Marella, decorations.

He said, "four times through the sacrifice of the Mass we pray for the intercession of the Blessed Mary," reminding those present to ask her to keep them pure of heart with a spirit detached from the world.

The speaker was introduced by the Rev. William Hickey, chaplain of the DCCW.

Steuben Deanery Women Hear Annunciation Talk

Hornell—A meeting that changed the entire course of history was cited by Rev. Thomas O'Keefe of Dansville in addressing the First Saturday luncheon women at The New Sherwood Hotel, Dec. 5.

"The greatest meeting the world has ever known had only two persons present, Father O'Keefe said at the luncheon sponsored by Steuben Deanery DCCW, "the Angel Gabriel and the Virgin Mary."

"It was the meeting of the Angel Gabriel and the Virgin Mary when she said, 'Behold the handmaid of the Lord.'"

The speaker added: "Christ again gave us His mother on Calvary when he said to St. John, 'Behold thy mother.'"

FATHER O'KEEFE told his audience that "she is mystical and truly our mother since the Annunciation."

He said, "four times through the sacrifice of the Mass we pray for the intercession of the Blessed Mary," reminding those present to ask her to keep them pure of heart with a spirit detached from the world.

The speaker was introduced by the Rev. William Hickey, chaplain of the DCCW.
