

St. Agnes Alumnae Plan Holiday Event

A Christmas meeting of the Alumnae Association of St. Agnes High School will be held on Dec. 20, at 3:00 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Besides the usual renewal of old acquaintances, a special feature of the entertainment program will be a melody of Christmas music presented by the Angel Choir, a unique chorus of children from Holy Redeemer parish, under the direction of Monsignor Joseph Vogt.

Various committees have been set up for this holiday event. Chairmen are: Mary Ann Cassidy, decorations; Albert Haster, refreshments; and Nancy Ritz, entertainment.

ST. STANISLAUS, A reverent approach to the true meaning of Christmas was the motif of a short business session and pre-Christmas party of the Holy Name of Mary Society last Tuesday evening. The religious custom among the Polish people at Christmas time, sharing of the unleavened bread, was carried out. Father Chester M. Kloczek, spiritual director, explained the meaning of the custom. He said the unleavened bread is a symbolical representation of Christ and serves as a reminder that in accepting Christ one must love his neighbor. In sharing the unleavened bread, all grudges, misunderstandings and hostilities must cease, openly or secretly. Authority was cited from the Bible.

FATHER KLOCZEK announced that a Christmas eve program for the home will be conducted in the Parish Bulletin, Sunday, Dec. 20. The enclosed folder will help to foster the true spirit of Christmas in the home, he said. After members and guests shared the unleavened bread at a luncheon, the Catholic Theatre presented "Arrest Ye Merry Gentlemen." Gifts were exchanged after the play and a contribution of $80 was given to the NCCW Madonna Plan. Sisters of St. Joseph who staff St. Stanislaus School received a full coverage insurance policy on their automobile, membership in the Rochester Automobile Club and a $500 check to cover costs of operating the automobile during the coming year. Sister Mary Ann, superior of the society in the Sisters' name. Each Sister received a personal Christmas gift. A check for $500 was presented by Mrs. William F. Fopula, president of St. Stanislaus Church. Father Alexander J. Stac, pastor, received the gift in the name of the parishioners.

ST. AGNES, Aron. Annual Holy Name Society Father and Son Communion and Breakfast was held Sunday, Dec. 13 at Wally's Inn. Business session was conducted by William Mulvaney, president. Guest speaker was Very Rev. Paul Burkhart, S.V.D., rector of St. Michael's Mission House, Conesus. His address to the father and sons was on "Vocation Consciousness." Brother Value Takes Vows
Brother Amicus Value of Rochester presented first vows in the Brothers of Mercy in a ceremony at the Motherhouse in which 11 young men were invested and professed. Fr. Rev. Mgr. Albert Ruzic, P. A. officiated.

The Congregation of the Brothers of Mercy devoted to suffering humanity. The Brothers will soon open a new house for retired priests and elderly men in Kansas City, Mo.

Added by a grant through the Hill-Burton Act, capacity of the Brothers' home in Oklahoma City was doubled by section of a new wing. A long waiting list indicates need for a new wing for the Sacred Heart home in Clarence.
