

Hibernians Announce Winners In Area Irish Essay Contest

Six Elmira area students were named this week as winners in the Chemung County Hibernian Irish Essay Contest.

The announcement was made by Frank D. Maloney, contest chairman, of the sponsoring in the high school division were organization, the Magr. John Maxine Bury, Linda Lantigan J. Lee Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians.

Outstanding entries in the grammar school consolidation were brought to the attention of the contest. His winning essay was "Ireland's Contribution to American School and Kathleen Casey." He receives $25.

First prize in the grammar school division was won by Ann Bilson, 11, of St. Patrick's School. Her "St. Brigid" entry brought $15.

RUNNERUP in the high school competition was Kathleen Cogans, 16, of Notre Dame, for her work, "Famous Irishmen in Music and Art." She is the recipient of $15.

The Very Rev. Donal M. O'Connell, O. C. M., state chaplain, is in charge of the contest. Members of the division Irish history committee acted as judges for the Chemung County Contest.

They were: High school, Magr. John Maxine Bury, Linda Lantigan J. Lee Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians.

St. Peter and Paul's School representative, Richard Eason, took third honor on the grammar school level for his "St. Kevin." His prize was $10.

Receiving honorable mention in the high school division were Raymond E. Hourihan, financial secretary and president-elect, and Maloney, contest chairman.

Assisting as "contact men" to the Chemung County parochial schools were John R. Battler, Atty. M. Joseph Danaher, James P. Larkin and Atty. Jerome H. Kane.

Ithaca PTA Members Meet

Ithaca — A Manger Scene, gift-tide fireplace, arranged by Mrs. Sue Faber, and a decorated Christmas tree formed the setting for immaculate Conception School's P.T.A. Christmas Party last week in Parish Hall.

Approximately 150 were in attendance. Sister St. Mark opened the meeting with prayer.

A short business meeting was held. Mrs. Louise Cornish announced that the membership is now 258 paid members with Sister Francis Williams leading in the membership drive.

Hourihan Heads Elmira AOH

Raymond B. Hourihan of 86 Fulton St., Elmira, has been elected the 1959 president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. He was elected to the office at the division's final meeting of the year last Friday, Dec. 11 at Columbus Center.

Hourihan was the 1958 financial secretary and served as recording secretary the previous year. He succeeds Jerome F. Hoge.

The new president, together with the other 1959 officers, will be installed at the group's January 8 meeting. The installation service will be conducted by John F. Goughan of Brooklyn, AOH national secretary.

Elected to other division offices were:

Bart J. Maloney, vice-president; Atty. M. Joseph Danaher, chairman of standing committee; William C. Hulbert, treasurer; Atty. Jerome H. Kane, financial secretary; Atty. William D. Burns, recording secretary; Francis H. Sted, marshal; and Peter J. Glanton, sentinel.

Hourihan will appoint the captain and Irish historian at the January meeting.

St. Casimir's Draws 200

The Advent Party on Dec. 15, held by the St. Casimir's Rosary and Sacred Heart Society, Elmira, was attended by nearly two hundred members. The party, which took place in the decorated school hall, was held after the recitation of the Rosary and Benediction in the church.

MRS. F. P. HOMMEL, president of the Chemung-Schuyler Diocese and diocesan chairman in charge of cooperating with Catholic Charities, accepted a box of infant clothing from the Foreign Relief Committee of St. Casimir's Rosary and Sacred Heart Society.

The gowns were made by many members, for the Madonnina Plan for mother and child clinics, in China and India. Included also were knit handkerchiefs for the leper colony. These are some of the projects of the diocese, under NCCW, which St. Casimir's Rosary and Sacred Heart Society cooperate in.

CHRISTMAS FRUIT MOLD is a tempting dish which you can serve after an elaborate holiday dinner or you can whip it from the refrigerator to serve with little sandwiches and coffee when late snacks are in order.

The mold itself is calorie-low — the sauce is richer, but you can control the calorie count on each serving by the amount of sauce you use. This mold is wonderful for children too, which is a nice thing for mother. So often holiday desserts are overly rich. Second helpings of this dessert should be permitted, in fact encouraged!

THE FOG HAS LIFTED FROM THE BUSHES Cranberries are back on the grocery shelves and most of us are happy. December is a good time to store fresh cranberries in your freezer. It is the easiest of all fruits to freeze. Just place the bags or window boxes right in the freezer. The frozen berries keep for 12 months. Another way to freeze cranberries is to wash and dry berries and seal in your own moisture-vapor proof containers.

A low-calorie salad for the big day

At Home With Trudy McNeill
By TRUDY McNEILL

Around Christmas time, my head is full of plans for entertaining, decorating, and of course feeding a family and friends I look for an easy way to keep in mind the impressions I want to make.

Remember the old saying, "Dinner is served." It is a time when most everyone has an overabundance of sweet things, your family and guests will be sure to welcome something a little different.

HAVE YOU ever noticed that those lovely sweet ladies who never seem to gain an ounce over the holidays, instinctively reach for a piece of fruit. It is true that fresh fruits can satisfy a craving for dessert.

Perhaps this is a good time to remind you of the caloric value of the fresh fruits on the market right now. Apples, 70 calories; bananas — the three-pound size — 85 calories; grapefruit, half a medium one, 50 calories; grapes, about 1 cup, raw, 80 calories; 1 large orange, 70 calories; 1 large pear, 100 calories; 1 cup raw pineapple, 75 calories; 1 medium tangerine, 40 calories.

If you know your calorie tables you'll realize that's pretty low considering each is worth a full dessert and even more important is the fact that these fruits offer good health with good eating because of the abundance of minerals and vitamins.

Fresh Fruit Mold
Place over hot water to melt. Add to orange juice, sugar and salt. Stir a 1/2 quart mold with cold water, pour in 1/2 inch clear gelatin. Chill until firm. Arrange a layer of sliced bananas over the firm gelatin. In the meantime, chill the remaining gelatin mixture until it begins to thicken. Fold in remaining fruit and turn into the mold. Chill until firm and ready to serve. Turn out onto a serving plate. Garnish with holly. Serve with Orange Whipped Cream. 8 servings.

ORANGE WHIPPED CREAM
1 c. heavy cream
2 T. confectioners' sugar
1/2 c. grated orange rind
When cream is stiff, fold in sugar and grated orange rind. Yield: 2 cups. Another idea for dessert using fresh fruits — just serve fresh fruit as it was taken off tree or vine — goes famously with nice sharp cheese. Men particularly love this combination. Make a handsome fruit arrangement in a bowl, scatter nuts over it here and there and if you have some holly or mistletoe sprigs tuck them around the base. Very festive and it just seems to sing, "God rest ye, merry gentlemen!"
