Deputy Edward Clauss Lauded At KC Dinner

Edward A. Clauss, Knights of Columbus district deputy, was honored at a testimonial dinner-dance Saturday night, Dec. 12 at Columbus Center, Elmira.

The tribute was paid the deputy of the K of C's 75th district for his many years of faithful service.

Keynoting the affair was the main address by William E. Burke, a supreme director and executive secretary of Ulster council.

Burke praised Clauss for his unselfish and time-consuming devotion to the cause of Catholicism. He called the work of Clauss, and those like him, a credit to the Church and its members.

He likened their labors to the Campanile tower, which highlights the reverence of the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception and which was made possible by the donations of brother knights.

Music Program Highlights Painted Post Party

Coming — The annual Christmas hymns in Latin, accompanied by the Sacred Heart Unit, will be featured at the Painted Post party on Sunday morning.

Guests present were introduced and welcomed by Mrs. David Mamaux, president, and the pastor, the Rev. Harold F. Rogers.

A reading of two Christmas stories was presented by Mrs. Robert Shopoff, assisted by her eight-year-old son Thomas, a third grade student at Calvin U. Smith School. The readings were "Why The Chimes Ring" and "The Littlest Angel."

CAROLS sung by the children's choir included: "O Dear Little Children," "Angels We Have Heard On High," "Behold, The Star," "Hodie! All Night," "Mary Sang A Lullaby," "Silent Night," and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas." All were under the direction of Miss Ann Frost.

Mrs. Robert Maurer, Mrs. Earl Eshburn, Miss Shirley Frost and Miss Ann Frost, members of the adult choir, sang Christmas the Baptist Church, and the Rev. Theophane Murphy, S.A., rector of St. John's Monastery, Seminary, Montour Falls, and chaplain of the Corning council.

THE TOASTMASTER was Matthias F. Fennell, immediate past grand knight.

Thomas F. Coggins, past grand knight, presented Clauss of it briefly. He also touched on the national program of the district council. He described Clauss' record and the improvement in the activities of the center since August, 1955.

Clauss is serving his fifth term as district deputy and is also a former grand knight of Elmira Council 229 and a former faithful navigator of Elmira Fourth Degree Assembly in the local Columbian Square, do-livered his award-winning talk, "The Qualities of Leadership."

He was presented a U.S. Sash by Fennell, who is vice-chairman of K of C youth activities for New York State.

Introduced from the speakers' table were: Joseph B. Wal-Mart, Leo G. Schwab, V.F., dean of the Chemung-Schuyler diocese of Ulster, past state Catholic and pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church. He also spoke briefly.

Other speakers were the Rev. Raymond G. Hinkel, faithful navigator of Elmira Fourth Degree Assembly and pastor of St. John semple.
