Pope's Cassock Made in Rochester
Gabriel Ciaello and his son Thomas, Rochester tailors, display their completed cassock to be sent to Pope John XXIII at the Vatican. They also have prepared a cassock for Cardinal Tardini, the Pope's secretary of state. The Ciaellos operate the Elite Clothing Co. in the Burke Building and are distant relatives of Monsignor Paul Ciaello, former pastor at St. Anthony's, now a co-worker in Rome with Cardinal Tardini.

St. Elizabeth Alumnae To Hold Luncheon

Annual holiday meeting and luncheon of Rochester Alumnae, founded. First degrees were conferred by the college in the year preceding the beginning of this century will be held Tuesday, Dec. 29 at 12 noon at the Women's University Club.

During this year, a Centennial Building Campaign has been in progress. In addition to their individual gifts and pledges, the Rochester Alumnae have sponsored during the holidays, the sale of Southern fruit cake, a project which they intend to make an annual one for aiding the building fund.

A film strip produced this summer and showing in color more than 100 views of the 440 acre campus will be shown Tuesday. Narration with organ music background on a record has been coordinated with the film.

After a brief summary of the present year is given by Mrs. Margaret Flynn, president; Mrs. Paul Rombaut, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Norman Driscoll and Miss Marguerite King, program chairmen, election of officers will take place. Plans will be completed for the 1960 year.

OTHER OFFICERS elected were: Frank Picchi, vice president; Anthony Constable, recording secretary; Nazarene Di Amico, financial secretary; Al Elzo, treasurer; Joseph Di Pillo, first trustee; Thomas Petrosino, second trustee; Frank Casasanta, first counselor, Don Furano, second; Anthony Piffner, third; Rene Constable, fourth, and John Spina, fifth.
