Tableau Featured At Rosary Meet

Geneva — A colorful Christmas tableau was a feature of the program at the annual Christmas dinner party of the Rosary Society of St. Stephen's parish recently in the school hall.

One hundred members and guests were present. Mrs. Martin Lawler and Miss Elizabeth Kane were co-chairmen. Mrs. C. William Parker, president of the society, presided.

The tableau of the Nativity scene, directed by Mrs. George Doebelin, was enacted by members. A choir, also of members, provided the musical setting.

Henry Sedorek, director of St. Stephen's Choir, was accompanist for group singing and for the soloist, Mr. William Humiston, president of Ontario-Seneca-Yates Chapter of the National Council of Catholic Women.

The Rev. Raymond E. Nolan, pastor of the church, gave a Christmas message. Also attending were the Rev. John Duffy and the Rev. Raymond Ringwood.

During the brief business meeting, Mrs. Madeline Buckley, chairman, reported on the recent successful holiday bazaar.
