

Prelate's Kin, Eugene Boyle Requiem Held

Funeral Mass for Eugene G. Boyle, brother of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles V. Boyle, pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church was offered in St. Salome Church, Thursday, Dec. 17.

Mr. Boyle, 44, of 33 Coolidge Rd., Irondequoit, a linotype operator of The Times-Union, died Dec. 13, 1959 after several months' illness.

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by Monsignor Boyle assisted by the Rev. Francis Marks, deacon and the Very Rev. Msgr. Richard M. Quinn, subdeacon.

In the Sanctuary were the Right Reverend Monsignors John E. Manly, Chancellor of the diocese; Arthur E. Ratigan, Gerald C. Lambert, Richard K. Burns, John M. Duffy and Frank J. Hoefen.

Also the Reverend Fathers Daniel Brent, Edward D. Metzger, John Kelly, S.J., Paul McCabe, John S. Walsh, John S. Cavanaugh, Robert J. Downs, Thomas Hector, Edward J. Eschrich, George J. Weinmann, Bernard C. Newcomb, Joseph F. Heitzhart, Leo C. Mooney, George S. Wood, William M. Roche and James R. Barnett, S.J. attended.

A native of New York City, Mr. Boyle came to Rochester in 1942. He worked for Wollensak Optical Co. before joining the Times-Union April 1, 1946. He belonged to the Rochester Typographical Union No. 15.

He is survived by his wife, Eileen; two sons, Charles and Michael; two daughters, Eileen and Patricia; his brother, Monsignor Boyle.

Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Arrangements were by Burn-Hanna Funeral Home, 1795 Ridge Road East.

Mothers Form Three Circles

Ms. Morris — Three groups of the Mother's Circle have been organized here and are holding informal meetings in the homes of the members.

THE LOCAL groups were started with the aid of members of the Mother's Circle of Danville, Family Life Chairman of the Rochester Diocesan Council of Catholic Women.

The annual Christmas Play, presented by the Kindergarten Class of St. Patrick's School, was presented Monday afternoon at the school under the direction of Mrs. Dolores Scura, teacher. The school closed for the Christmas vacation Wednesday.

St. Agnes Students Fill Baskets For Needy, Plan Aid To Mothers

Christmas is giving, but that does not consist of simply material gifts, and that it should not begin or end on the 25th of December, are two principles, the girls of St. Agnes High School are stressing this year.

Under the direction of the Sodality Prefects, Marilyn Oeschger, Kathie Noll, Kathleen Laverne and Barbara Staropoli, the girls in each home-Optical Co. before joining the Times-Union April 1, 1946. He belonged to the Rochester Typographical Union No. 15.

Helping at home with the countless pre and post-holiday tasks has been emphasized, so that the mothers will be relieved of some of the shopping, wrapping, baby-sitting, cooking and cleaning which fill the vacation days.

TWENTY GIRLS under the direction of Jeanne Sloan will go to Industry, the State School for Boys, and will sing for the Midnight Mass which will be celebrated by Father William J. Schifferl. Since this is one of only three high Masses sung at Industry during the year, the girls will sing a two part arrangement of the Mass as well as the traditional Christmas carols.

After Christmas, the Sodality will be distributing prizes they have collected at the Genesee Settlement House. Junior Red Cross members will visit Monroe County Hospital to read to the patients, and continue their outings with the boys and girls of St. Joseph's Villa — days employed equally by the Villa children and the St. Agnes girls.

Through the Missions, too, the students give. On "Dr. Dooley Day," held December 11, $1600 was collected for the gallant doctor. Their November total, over $400 will buy a stained

Dr. Dooley Leaves For Laos

New York — (RNS) — Dr. Thomas A. Dooley, famed "jungle physician of Laos," accepts a bouquet from Joyce Breslow, 5, of Jamaica, N.Y., at New York International Airport before departing for his hospital in Laos near the Chinese border. The 37-year-old Catholic doctor had come to the United States to undergo emergency surgery for cancer and to conduct a fund-raising drive for the underprivileged in needy areas of the world.
