New Convent In Henrietta

The four Sisters of Mercy who staff Good Shepherd School, Henrietta, have a new convent.

The Rev. George E. Vogt, pastor of Good Shepherd Church, purchased the former John A. Buyck residence at 3318 East Henrietta Road for a convent. Acquisition of the property was made possible through the sale of the Henrietta Haytiff on West Henrietta Road.

THE CONVENT has all modern conveniences and includes a well appointed knotty pine chapel on the first floor. In addition to the dwelling, a large parcel of land was obtained, giving the Sisters direct access to the school building in the rear. A completed fenced-in swimming pool in the backyard marks the convent as one of the most unusual in the diocese.
