Open House For College Students

Report Card Meet At Holy Childhood

Second report card meeting of the year for the parents of Holy Childhood School will take place Tuesday, Jan. 19, at 7 p.m. Sister Joseph Andre, S.S.J., school principal, will address the parents and give out reports.

Parents will consult with the teachers after the meeting, and a social hour will follow with refreshments served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Bouras and Mrs. Mary Gargi.

Rev. James F. O'Connell, rector of St. Mary's Church, and chaplain of Court Theresa, was the speaker.

Mrs. Edward Toombs, grand regent, presided at the business meeting which followed the installation ceremony. The court voted a contribution to the National CDA Scholarship Fund for retarded children. It also renewed sponsorship of St. Mary's Church bulletins.

A social evening is planned for January 18.

Career Event
Sponsored At Canandaigua

Canandaigua — The Sodality of St. Mary's Parish sponsored its second annual career dinner in the church hall last week.

According to the Rev. William F. White, assistant pastor, the purpose of the annual event is to bring to the high school boys and girls of the parish a realization of the requirements to enter college.

Also to encourage the choice of Catholic Colleges for those who plan to continue their education, religious vocations were discussed at the dinner.

MORE THAN 120 students were present. James Seguin was master of ceremonies. Guest speakers were: Richard Cappon of St. John Fisher College; Rochester; Miss Fran Kellifer of Nazareth College, Rochester; and the Rev. Raymond Kenny of St. Andrew's Preparatory Seminary, Rochester. Others at the speakers' table were: the Rev. Alphonse P. O'Crinnain, pastor; Father White, the Rev. Thomas Statt, assistant pastor; Mary K. McKay, Sodality president; and Margie Conannon, president of the Youth Club.

Mrs. Angels Cittadella, wife in charge of the dinner, assisted by Mrs. Ellen McKay, decorations, and Miss Mary Jean Farthing, in charge of serving.
