Elmiran Named Editor Of St. Bona Newspaper

William J. Creighton of the Jerusalem Hill, Elmira, recently was named Editor-in-Chief of The Bona Ventura, weekly campus newspaper at St. Bonaventure University, for the Spring Semester, 1960.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Creighton, and is a member of St. Peter and Paul Parish, Elmira.

Creighton is a journalism major at St. Bonaventure. He became the first Junior appointed to the Editorship in a number of years. The position usually goes to a Senior.

DURING THE Fall semester 1959 he held the News Editor's post of The Bona Ventura, gaining the position after being named the paper's top news reporter during his Sophomore year. He has worked on the paper for two-and-a-half years.

The new Editor-in-Chief was graduated from Notre Dame High School, Elmira, in 1957. While at Notre Dame he served as a reporter, then, advanced to Co-Editor of that school's paper, The Marinel, during his senior year there.

His activities include membership in the Third Order of St. Francis, the Mariology Commission of the Catholic Students' Activity Council, and a contributor to The Laurel, University literary magazine. He served as a past secretary of both the Finger Lakes Club and the International Relations Club.

Graymoor Brother Takes Vows

Brother Joseph Marie Zakia, S.A., son of Mr. and the late Mr. Frederick M. Zakia of 134 Alameda Street, Rochester, professed his final vows as a Non-Teaching Brother of the Graymoor Friars on Monday, Jan. 25, in the Chapel of the Little Flower at Graymoor, Garrison, N.Y.

He attended Holy Rosary Elementary School and Jefferson High School in Rochester.

BROTHER JOSEPH MARIE was accepted as an aspirant for the Graymoor Friars in 1951. He was clothed with the brown habit of the Graymoor Friars on January 25, 1952, and took his vows of First Profession on January 25, 1954.

He is presently secretary to the Father Guardian at the Motherhouse at Graymoor.

Equity Knights Sponsor Contest On St. Patrick

The Knights of Equity, a society of Irish Catholic men, are sponsoring an essay contest based on St. Patrick and his influence.

The committee consisting of Joseph Kennedy, Dr. Edward Murray and Maria O'Connell have made arrangements for participation in the contest by the six parochial high schools of the city.

Each high school will determine whether to limit the contest to seniors, to juniors, and/or the entire student body.

THE JUDGES will be the Rev. Leo McManis, S.J., of English St. Bernard's Seminary, Miss Barbara Dulles, teacher of English at Madison High School and Miss Helen O'Connell, teacher of English at Monroe High School.

Topics on Essay Contest: Title - St. Patrick and His Influence on Modern United States or St. Patrick and His Conversion of Ireland.

Length of Essay - Minimum 700 words; maximum 900 words.

Deadline - February 25, 1960.

Award - $25 to student adjudged to have best essay; $10 to student having next best essay.

Registration of award to be made by Bishop Kearney on the occasion of Knights of Equity Annual St. Patrick's Day Banquet.

Rosarians Hear Sale Results

Cornell - Members of St. Mary's Rosary Society realized $10.42 on the Christmas sale. Fruit cakes according to the co-chairmen, Mrs. Margaret Savage and Mrs. Betty Gais.

The announcement was made at a meeting of 30 members of the Society in the school hall following the celebration of the Rosary and Benediction in the church.

Members also sold T-shirts and scarves with the school emblem as a fund raising project. The results of which have not been determined. Monies are used for the building fund of the parish, members said.

THE REV. JAMES MALLEY, moderator, opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs. Paul Quatrin, president, conducted the business. Mrs. Russ York and Mrs. James Cheney were named co-chairmen of a square dance to be held sometime in February.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joseph Maloney and his committee.
