

Aquinas To Sponsor State Tourney

One hundred and forty youth from secondary schools in New York State will vie for honors in the annual Aquinas Institute Debate Tournament to be held at the Dewey Avenue school on Feb. 5 and 6.

Seventy teams representing nineteen schools from all parts of the state will participate in the 9th Annual Tournament according to Rev. Joseph A. O'Reilly, O.S.B., director of speech and moderator of the debating club of the Basilian Fathers' school.

THIRTY FIVE prominent local lawyers, members of the Monroe County Bar Association will act as judges for the Saturday rounds of debate. Friday judges will be college debaters from the Rochester Institute of Technology and from St. John Fisher College.

Top of the debate will be several public and private schools will send observers to witness the tournament. The public is invited.

Students Earn Top National Sports Honors

National honors in athletic achievement were won by two Rochester Catholic high school students this week.

McQuaid Jesuit High School tackle Joe Fustano was named to the first team of the National High School All-American team as announced by the Wigwag Wiseman of America.

A senior, Joe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fustano, 37 Onondaga St.

St. Agnes High School student James Smith, 14, won the 880 yard finished fourth in the 120 yard runner-up honors in the Junior Girls Division of the National Outdoor Speeding competition at St. Paul, Minn., Sunday.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith, 276 Ravenwood Ave. and was sponsored by the Rochester Kiwanis Club.

Basketball Upset

MT. CARMEL grammar school team upset previously undefeated Our Lady of Lourdes team in the CYO league last Sunday at the Columbus Civic Center gym by a score of 32-22. Bill Rockwood shoots for the basket for Our Lady of Lourdes as Frank Mendicino (6) attempts to block the shot. Others in photo are Jim Hall (2) and Tyrone Carroll (10). League standings and schedule will appear in next week's Courier-Journal.

Scholarship Roll At St. Agnes

One hundred and ten of 310 girls at Saint Agnes High School have achieved the honor of being named to the St. Agnes High School Scholarship Roll, according to Sister Rose Alma, Principal.

An average of 90% is required for this appointment. The average is determined by excellence in the January examinations together with the daily achievement throughout the quarter, which has just ended.

HIGHEST AVERAGE in the senior class was obtained by Ann Eckel, St. Agnes' parish, 94.8; junior class, Barbara Aldrich, St. Margaret Mary parish, 94.8; sophomore class, Barbara Debbertin, St. Theodore's parish and Geraldine Zachary, St. Boniface parish, 93.2; freshman class, Catherine Debbertin, St. Theodore's parish, 97.0.

Among the courses offered during the second semester will be Mathematics 12B (Solid Geometry), Advanced Algebra, Personal Typing, Music Appreciation and Sociology.

Women interested in participating in the annual national bowling tournament of Ladies Auxiliaries, Knights of St. John are invited to a meeting, Monday, Feb. 2 at 8 p.m. at the Knights and Ladies of St. John Club, 306 Andrews St.

THE NATIONAL tournament is scheduled in Cleveland April 21 and 22. Entries close March 15. Margaret Gorman, Glenwood 2-6400-M will furnish information.

Membership Drive Opened To Aid Mercy Sisters

Mrs. Justin Williams, President of Mercy Guild of St. Theresa's Little Flower, announces the opening of the 34th Annual Membership Drive on February 9th at 1:30 p.m. at the Catholic Women's Club. At that time, the captains will receive their kits for distribution to the promoters.

Mrs. Williams emphasizes the importance of this drive, the proceeds of which accrue to the Sisters of Mercy who staff 27 schools in the Rochester Diocese.

MEMBERS OF the Mercy Guild receive the benefits of the many Masses and prayers of the Sisters, who just last Fall opened the new and finely equipped Catherine McCauley College on Blossom Road.

The Mercy Guild sponsors two bazaars held yearly at the Mercy High School Auditorium.

The goal for 1960 is 1400 members.

Hostesses, Mrs. George Gelpi and Mrs. Charles Ross, will preside at tea following the meeting.

We Made A Movie We Think You'd Like To See

The movie is called "City On The Horizon." The star performers are your friends and neighbors who are employed by the RG&E. The movie tells the fascinating story of how electricity, gas, and steam are brought to you and how they contribute to your better living.

If you belong to a church group, service club, veteran's post or a similar organization, you are invited to borrow "City On The Horizon" for one of your meetings. It's yours for the asking. The RG&E will provide you with this 24-minute sound film in full color, a projector, screen, projectionist, and even a commentator if you wish.

For more information about this and other films available to you, call the Rochester Gas & Electric Public Relations Department, LOc 2-7000.
