

CWV Women Elect Slate

At the 15th annual convention of the Monroe County Catholic War Veterans and Auxiliary held Saturday, Jan. 23 at the Manger Hotel, the following slate was elected:

President, Mrs. Marie Logan; 1st Vice Pres., Miss Anne Altmast; 2nd Vice Pres., Mrs. Marie Foley; 3rd Vice Pres., Miss Barbara Foon; Secretary, Mrs. Michael Tedone; Welfare Officer, Mrs. Dorothy Rombaut; Treasurer, Mrs. Charlotte Righmyer; Ritual Officer, Miss Switzer; Trustees, Miss Esthara Eaves, Mrs. Gerard Beauchamp, Mrs. Ralph Edwards.

DEPARTMENT OF New York CWV President Mrs. Louise Vogelsang of New York City installed the newly-elected officers. Guest speakers at the banquet were Bishop Kearney and National Department of New York Commander M. O. O'Leary of Baltimore.

Two auxiliary members, past county presidents and 7478 Representatives for six years were awarded plaques from the chapter for outstanding volunteer work at the veterans hospital. Miss Bernice Trunk, has served at Bath Hospital and Miss Esther Eaves at the Canadiana Veterans Hospital.

All officers were filled with the exception of historian which will be announced at a later date.

PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH Diocesan Director Father George Wood enrolls children of Holy Rosary Parish in the Holy Childhood Association. Ceremony was repeated at St. Augustine's Church, Rochester, and Holy Family, Auburn. Each youngster received the Papal Blessing and was presented with a medal and membership card. The 117 year old Association, under the direct supervision of the Holy Father, has accounted for the ransoming and conversion of more than 40 million pagan babies since its inception.

Sports Stars Featured

Geneva — The biggest sports event of the season was credited to the St. Francis Holy Name Society at the fourth annual Sports Banquet. Some of the famous sports figures present were Jim Brown, pro star of the Cleveland Browns; Gerhard Schwedes, captain of the National champion Syracuse team; and Steve Nagy, the first person to bowl a 300 game on television.

Proceeds from the banquet will go to the St. Francis de Sales athletic fund. Robert Gresham acted as toastmaster and John D'Arbino was the general chairman.
