Our Hats Are Off

By RAY SMITH

hours of it with beautiful scenes, excellent acting and narrative that does not strain credulity too greatly. If you have vicarious adventure, you'll find it in copious quantity. Brutality, suspense, conflict and tension are as plentiful in "The Big Fisherman" as in any adventure picture ever filmed.

Movie Listed In

Auburn, Geneva

"The Big Fisherman" opens at Schine's Auburn Theatre today, Feb. 13, and will continue until Feb. 15. Schine's Geneva Theatre will begin the movie on Feb. 11.

BETWEEN storms, come, by the way, which destroys the palace garden — a $125,000 set that helped to run the film cost up to $4,000,000 — there are numerous hand-to-hand encounters with swords, spears, clubs, bare knuckles, and considerable brawling.

EVERYONE WILL enjoy this gripping story where love is transformed by Christ's teaching and the old-age struggle between love and hate still is being waged while the world longs for peace. Remember, it's at the Palace Theatre. Don't miss it.

Walking down the street to get my milk I bumped into the manager of the Paramount Theatre who told me that the courtroom melodrama "THE STORY ON PAGE ONE" will hit his screen this weekend. Will hit, according to the Rochesterians will see "Operation Petticoat" for the last time. Both of the above are for ADULTS ONLY.

The tale of my exroommate is told at the Loew's Theatre in "Pretty Boy Floyd." I can't find a Legion rating for it as yet but it will be best to stay on the other side of Clinton Avenue this week as Lew's second offering is definitely an "B" movie.

HORNELL — Muscles and action are the ingredients for ADULTS ONLY starting Sunday in "GOLIATH AND THE BARBARISTS." It's certainly better than the trash played this week, the "B" (a low "B") movie (if you can call it that) "A Woman Like Satan."

ELMIRA — The Colonial Theatre also has action of days of yore for the WHOLE FAMILY in "THE WARRIOR AND THE SLAVE GIRL." The hilarious comedy, "THE GAZEBOS" laughs its way into the Elmira Theatre for ADULTS AND ADOLESCENTS.

Movies In Color Listed At Museum

Three movies, in color and sound, will be shown at Rochester Museum of Art and Science on Sunday, Feb. 7, at 2:30 p.m. and again at 5:30 p.m., to which the public is invited. No tickets are required.

The films are: "Himalaya" — Life on the Roof of the World;" "The Moon and How it Affects Us;" and "African Fauna."

London Friar TV Producer

London — (RNS) — A 51-year-old Franciscan has become the first Catholic priest in Europe to qualify as a fully-trained radio and television producer.

He is Father Agnelius Andrew, who for years has served as Catholic Assistant to the Head of Religious Broadcasting in the British Broadcasting Corporation. He has become familiarly known as the "radio priest," because of his many talks, commentaries and interviews over the air.

IN HIS WORK with the B.B.C. Father Agnelius has been responsible for thinking up ideas for religious broadcasts, choosing the people to take part in them, and even rehearsing them. But he has always had to hand the participants over to a professional producer to put them on the air.

But now that the priest is a professional producer himself, he can carry out the show from beginning to end.

While taking his producer's course, Father Agnelius had to be relieved from all his other work. Since a producer must know something of everyone else's job, he worked in turn as floor manager, camera man, sound-mixer and visioneer.

Father Agnelius is now working on a six-weeks' full-time course. This means working with other fulfilling producers to get experience in a variety of programs.

Father Agnelius whose family hail from Lancashire, England, first came into prominence during World War II when he took part in the "Aid" — Britain's true radio program devoted to religious questions. Prior to that he did pastoral work in Manchester. He has lectured and broadcast not only in England, but in Ire-
