The main office is in Ithaca where all books are processed and delivered to the various libraries in the group. Members of the group may borrow or purchase them outright through this newly formed group, which is sanctioned by the State of New York.

Mrs. Alice Ward, Grand Reagent, who initiated the project, presided over the "The Colors of Love" talk with a check for use by the library. Refreshments were served by a committee of which Mrs. George Simnick was chairman.

Owego—Members of Troop 37, Boy Scouts of America, of St. Patrick's Church, attended the 8:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday morning in a group, accompanied by their Scoutmaster, Charles Haigis.

The scouts entered the church preceded by the American flag and the troop flag, and occupied seats in the front of the church.

Also accompanying the troop were James Cavatorta, chairman of St. Patrick's parish committee; Ambrose McGivern, assistant scoutmaster; Stephen Eighton, a member of the parish committee and Frank McGovern, chairman of the advancement committee. During the week, which is observing the 50th anniversary of the founding of Scouting in America, members of Troop 37 will join other troops of the village in taking an active part in civic affairs.

John Cavatorta and George Siele, will both serve as village trustees. Not far from Montage Hill Park is a tiny cottage, formerly and John Waloch owned the Endicott Johnson Shoe factory. These two have been arranged to acquaint the scouts with the industries of the village.

School Director

Corning — Richard McDonald, director of research and guidance for the Corning City School District, presented an informative report on the area school guidance programs before about 75 members of the Catholic Women's Club of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in Painted Post at the monthly meeting last week.

The meeting was held in the social hall of the parish at Painted Post. The speaker used the vocational guidance program as a growth in the last 10 years as an example of the important place it has in the educational program today.

He explained that the guidance program in the schools provides guidance, information, and opportunities for students to develop a sound education.

He pointed out that the guidance program in the schools is an assistance to the schools when problems arise, and information to keep a constant supply of the same on vacation, free, and up-to-date lists of colleges.

Refreshments were served by the following: Mrs. Charles Parker, chairman; Mrs. David Whiteman, co-chairman; Mrs. Edward Griffin, Jr.; Mrs. Raymond Rawley; Mrs. Thomas Flanagan; Mrs. Florence McIntyre; Mrs. E. C. Davis; Mrs. William Pease; Miss Dorothy Doe; Mrs. Norbert Gaisler; Mrs. Allen Frost; Mrs. Paul D. King and Mrs. Carlos Gutierrez.
