

Religion Ranks Third In Book Publishing

S. Louis — (RNS) — Religious book publishers "never had it so good," a Jesuit editor declared here. Father Edward Duff, who edits the Jesuit monthly "Social Order" told a meeting of Religious Publishers Corp. that if fiction and juveniles are excluded — religious publications lead all others by a comfortable margin last year.

Citing a "Published Weekly" report he said that of the 19 categories analyzed last year, fiction was first with 2,432 titles, juveniles second with 1,647, and the religious list third with a strong 1,123—an increase of 7 per cent over the preceding year.

"My first concern is that you resist the temptation to exploit the market by publishing just a pietist that is a caricature of religious faith," Father Duff told the publishers. "There is undoubtedly a tangible temptation to service a ready market based on superficial religious interest—endemic in our burgeoning suburbs."

African Goal

Freedom, Not Communism

Maryknoll — (NC) — A recent revelation that Catholic missionaries "spend more time on the people's social needs" in their efforts to beat communism in the world's underdeveloped areas was made by Maryknoll seminarians here by the Catholic leader of Tanganyika Africa.

Jaffu Kambarage Nyere, expected to become the prime minister of Tanganyika this fall, is visiting the U. S. under the State Department's international educational exchange program. After addressing the Maryknoll seminarians here he answered questions for half an hour.

WHEN ASKED what Catholic missionaries should stress in Tanganyika, Mr. Nyere said they should "try to give them full opportunity to unleash their powers for need."

Mr. Nyere is 37 and the father of five children. He was one of 20 children born to the several wives of Chief Nyere.

Mr. Nyere is a man "common man" in the world of human beings. Each life is as a symphony played in tune with the universe. Life itself is a world of one being; the sun rises only when life's eye behold it; the stars, having shone brightly over generations of men, have now part of each man's noble worth has acknowledged and admitted to be a part of his life's individual world.

"Common man" would validate the occurrence of "common life." And, life, no matter how uneventful, is never ordinary. It is a precious gift from the maker of time.
