Watching The ScreenCourt Room

By RAY SMITH

An earthly engrossing melo-drama of life and love in a middle class community comes to the Paramount Theatre for ADULTS ONLY under the title of "STORY ON PAGE ONE."

The gripping cast includes Rita Hayworth, Anthony Franciosa, and Gig Young. All you and a court room too. And you are there — whether you like it or not. One may think that the director of this Non-Academy Award film got a few lessons from Jack (These are the Rita) Webb.

The Cinemascope camera gives us the scene in the Los Angeles Hall of Justice where Josephine Morris (Rita) and her son, Bill (Gig), the young widow who loves and hates her husband for the murder of Rita's husband, all evil follow, a policeman, a prostitute, and a junkie. (Sheer waste!) No suspense as far as the audience is concerned, perhaps the only means defender Frank has of getting the truth on the court records is a clever cross-examination of defendant Gig's Mother who has the air of a sweet old-fashioned dame but whose desire for the murderer of Rita's husband, as evil follows, can Franciosa do it. Ahhh, the film broke. What happens? Now, hell! No suspense as far as the audience is concerned, perhaps

THE BIG SUSPENSE question, if any, is how Franciosa is going to combat some damage evidence that Gig arranged an alibi to prove he was in Sacramento the night Rita's husband was killed while trying to shoot Gig in Los Angeles. Well, there's really no suspense about it — Gig rigged (Say he'd last two words ten times fast) the mind to delude his mother who had a detective on his trail. She didn't like Gig going out with sons from Jack (These are the Rita).

She has twice been successful in the climb up the ladder to the top contest, having selected 11 contestants in Monroe County, January 19, and then winning another victory, however, has been somewhat four other counties.

The winner Sunday will have on the site contest in Monroe, on March 19.

Are you still with us? Well,

the only means defender Frank has of getting the truth on the court records is a clever cross-examination of defendant Gig's Mother who has the air of a sweet old-fashioned dame but whose desire for the murderer of Rita's husband, as evil follows, can Franciosa do it. Ahhh, the film broke. What happens? Now, hell! No suspense as far as the audience is concerned, perhaps

TEN WEEKS in the circus and "TOBY TYLER" may run for that long at the Palace Theatre for the WHOLE FAMILY. It's tops. Don't miss it.

THAT "SMELL" of garbage coming from the Loew's Theatre is from "Suddenly, Last Summer" after one sees the young woman you stayed home and never heard of Sebastian it is really depressing, too wordy, and disgusting. The characters in this waste of film repeat the movie's title so much, you would think the audience is stupid. For an evening of good entertainment, watch TV.

Have you entered the "40 pass" contest yet? The post office is adding new employees to take care of all the mail coming to me with your guesses on the Academy Award. Get yours in early. It could be YOU!

KELMIRA — Waiting good money Hollywood must have made two prints of "Suddenly, Last Summer" at the Elgin Theatre for NOBODY. I can remember when I disliked a picture as much as that and I had to sit through the whole thing. What sacrifice is the cause! The Colonial Theatre still has for another weekend "ON THE BEACH" for ADULTS ONLY.

HORNELL—"100" ARABIAN NIGHTS" will be at the Majestic Theatre for the WHOLE FAMILY. See this instead of the "Gene Krupa Story" which is "up" and starts March 9th. If Hollywood wants to make stories, how about the "Ray Smith Story"? Who said it would be banned in Boston?
