Do Your Own Decorating?

A Professional May Save You Money

Draperies are a basic need in decorating a home, so states Julie Sherman, president of Model Interiors, Inc. who plans the interiors of the new model homes by Caldwell and Cook in Paddy Hill South.

The use of draperie in wall to wall as well as floor to ceiling treatments, adds much to making a room outstanding and Miss Sherman adds that they need not be expensive. All draperies used in the model homes in Paddy Hill could be made by the homemaker herself and none of the fabrics used cost more than $1.50 per yard and some as little as 49¢ per yard.

MISS SHERMAN advises that it is wise to consult a decorator before you start but warns that complete honesty as to your budget is a must if the decorator is going to plan proper decor for you.

A professional plan will save money in the long run by eliminating trial and error which can be costly.

IN THE MODELS now on display in Paddy Hill monochromatic color schemes were used to give rooms an extra air of spaciousness and the interior decor is in keeping both price and style wise with the cost of the home. Each model attempts to achieve the "lived in" look down to the last ash tray.

Model Interiors, Inc. decorate only for builders and have four model homes in 11 states—Miss Sherman is a professional member of the National Society of Interior Design and has won awards from "House and Home" and "American Home" magazines. The five new models in Paddy Hill South will be open for inspection daily and Sunday.

Supper arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Francis Wender. High assisted by Mrs. Charles Stobbs, Mrs. Edward Burkhardt, Mrs. Frank Scollan, Mrs. Clarence Connor, Mrs. Theodore Marquart, Mrs. John Sarofeen, Mrs. Edward Clancy, Mrs. William Rice, Mrs. John Walsh, Mrs. John Miskell, Mrs. Francis Catalano, Mrs. Amedeo Colella, Mrs. Louis Marino and Mrs. Herbert L. Hood.

FOLLOWING THE MEETING, a White Elephant Sale was held with Mrs. Leonard Sathre, at auctioneer.

On Wednesday, March 9, the Mothers Club will sponsor a Cosmetic Demonstration at 8:15 p.m. in Lyceum Hall. All women of the parish and their guests are cordially invited to attend.

Plans are being made for the annual rummage sale to be held on March 11 and 12 at the former Lorraine Shop on Genee Street. Mrs. Elizabeth Hopkins and Mrs. William Cornell are co-chairmen of this project.

"Jr. Millionaires Club" Begun For Youngsters

Dime Banking and Loan Assn. at Panoramic Plaza has inaugurated a "Junior Millionaires Club" for young boys and girls. Its purpose is to interest youth in the advantages of saving. Youngsters may open their accounts at the bank and make their own deposits by climbing the "Rainbow Bridge" to the teller's window. They receive a bank book and a membership card in the club. They are also given a dime bank which they may fill and then deposit in the bank. Fred Erath, president, is the originator of this banking idea for young people.
