Socialists Plan 'Career' Fete

Socialists of St. Francis Xavier Parish will celebrate St. Patrick's Day, March 17, with their fathers, at the second annual "Career Dinner." Guest speakers will include a nun, dental hygienist, teacher and a police woman.

THE INFORMAL dinner, held in vocation month, is designed to promote a clearer understanding of these possible professions for the Socialist, as well as to furnish their fathers with a concise explanation of the Socially.

Planning the evening are: prefect, Marianne Scrofano; vice prefect, Carol Cammarata; secretary, Barbara Taddeo and social chairman, Linda Thomas and Joanne Cocchiola.

Veterans Honor Noted Laymen

Presentation of awards for outstanding Catholic lay activity to a Rochester man and woman featured the thirteenth annual Communion and Breakfast of the Monroe County Chapter, Catholic War Veterans and Auxiliary Sunday, March 8, at the Sheraton.

Recipient of the Catholic War Veterans medal was Charles M. Williams, Mayor, an attorney from Webster, whose topic was "The Hydrogen Bomb." Gerard J. Beauchamp, past county commander, served as toastmaster and acted as secretary.

Mirano, married and a member of St. Anthony of Padua parish, is a retired Bausch and Lomb employee. He and his wife, Ann, are the parents of three children, six girls and three boys. Three of his daughters are Sisters of St. Joseph and one son, Jacob, is in the novitiate of the Congregation of St. Basil.

HE IS VERY active in the parish Holy Name Society, a trustee of St. Anthony of Padua Church, a member of its Men's Club, which was incorporated in 1923 and today has 1500 members. She was an organizer of the National Council of Catholic Women, Rochester Chapter. She has worked diligently for numerous organizations, including the Big Sister Organization, Series, Camp Madonna and the Charles Settlement House.

Her work was recognized by His Holiness, Pope Pius XII who in 1952 awarded her the papal decoration "Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice" for signal service to the church.

Among the special guests at the breakfast were former recipients of the Layman's Medal and the Laywoman's Plaque, who were seated at reserved tables. General Chairman of the event was Raymond Jeffrey, a member of Holy Rosary Par-

Waterloo Defeats Newark 43-37
Waterloo—St. Mary's Basketball team defeated St. Michael's Newark at the Newark Community Center Thursday night, March 8. The score was 43-37. The team played another successful game when it defeated St. Francis de Sales of Geneva on the De Sales court. This time the score was 48-20.

Discussion Held On Communism
Four members of the Honor Philosophy Centre at Nazareth College presented a symposium in honor of St. Thomas Aquinas in the college auditorium on March 7.

Speakers in the symposium, entitled MARXIAN COMMUNISM: ITS PHILOSOPHY AND ITS DANGERS, were introduced by Miss Kathleen LeGault. Miss Dolores Zaguso discussed "The Aims of the Philosophy of Communism." Sister Thomas, S.S.J. spoke on "Communism and Contemporary American Values," and Sister Joanna, S.S.J. on "The Communist Menace in the United States."

THE ENTIRE student body completed the program by singing the PANIS ANGELICUS composed by St. Thomas.

The symposium was under the direction of Dr. Robert Miller, chairman of the Philosophy Department at Nazareth College.

Olympic Chapel Wins Award
Squam Valley — (RNS) — Queen of Snows Catholic Church here, which was dedicated the day before the opening of the VIII Olympic Winter Games, has won a first place architectural award for its designer.

The triangular structure is dominated by a glassed-in sanctuary which frames Elio Granite Cliff Mountain, to the back of the valley.

Pontiff Visits Station Church
Vatican City — (RNS) — Pope John XXIII revived an old papal Lenten tradition by taking part on Ash Wednesday in the first of the "Lenten stations" in Rome's Church of Santa Sabina on the Aventine Hill.

The practice of holding Lenten stations in Rome with the clergy and people meeting at an appointed church originated during the pontificate of Pope Gregory the Great in the sixth century, but the last Pope to keep observance on Ash Wednesday was Clement XIII who reigned from 1758 to 1769.

Nature Friends
Tokyo — (NC) — Ordinations this month will bring the total number of Japanese priests to more than 400.
