

Funeral Mass Offered For Sister Nunilo

Funeral Mass for Sister M. Nunilo Edmonds, former principal of St. Annrose School, was offered in Nazareth Convent Chapel, Pittsford, Saturday, March 12.

SOLEMN REQUIEM Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Rev. St. Paul's School, Oswego, before going to Our Lady of Perpetual Help School, in Rochester, where she had taught the past six years.

She leaves three sisters, Mrs. Josephine McGuire and Mrs. William Powers, both of Prince Edward Island, and Mrs. Celia McQuade of Portland, Maine, and several nieces and nephews. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Sixth grade pupils from Our Lady of Perpetual Help School formed a guard of honor at the church.

Sister Nunilo died Wednesday, March 8, 1950, in St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira. Sister had also taught at old Cathedral High School and St. Patrick's Grammar School, Rochester.

A native of Prince Edward Island, Canada, she came here in 1902 to enter the Sisters of St. Joseph. Her first teaching assignment was in St. Patrick's Grammar School. From 1910 to 1922 she taught at Cathedral High. Between 1922 and 1944 she was principal of three schools: St. Mary's in Elmira, St. Aloysius in Auburn and St. Ambrose here. She taught from Madrid.

Knights To Sponsor Statewide Oratoricals

The New York State Council of the Knights of Columbus is sponsoring a Statewide Oratorical Contest, for any Catholic boy or girl, who is graduating from any accredited High School, public or private, in 1950, and who is a resident in New York State.

Masses will be offered on Sundays and at least once during the week. Confessions will be heard daily.

Mission Closes At St. Patrick's

Solemn closing of the Mission for the men and high school boys of St. Patrick's Parish, Elmira, will take place on Sunday at 3 p.m.

The Mission is being conducted by two priests from the Congregation of the Passion, Father Michael Connor, C.P., and Father Raymond Houlihan, C.P.

227 Hoffman St.

Information may be obtained from the Grand Knight of the local Council, when the contest will originate. The winner and runner-up of the local contests will then advance to the district contests, which is in charge of the District Deputy of that district. The winner and runner-up of the district contest will then compete in the Rochester area.

The chairman of the Rochester Diocese Contest is Gerald F. Mullen who is Chairman of the Board of District Deputies of Central New York.

The chairman of the Rochester Diocese Contest is Gerald F. Mullen who is Chairman of the Board of District Deputies of Central New York.

The Rev. James Malley offered benediction.

SHARING THE speaking platform was Paul Tamburo, a past grand knight of the council who discussed the principles of the Knights of Columbus.

Casidy joined the group that the retreat will be held in the Notre Dame Retreat House.

Registration will be from 7 to 8 p.m. April 22 at the Retreat House, and the retreat will close at 1 p.m. April 24.

Casidy is chairman of the Corning Area Laymen's Retreat House, and Henry Astor, president of St. Vincent de Paul Church, Philip Butte of St. Mary's Church, William Amey of St. Patrick's Church, Bernard Ream, of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, and William McGaugh of St. Peter's Church.

The breakfast attracted 50 Knights, after they had attended Mass in the body of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in Painted Post.

The Rev. James Malley offered benediction.

At a recent meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Joseph's Hospital committee, chairmen were named for the spring meeting of the Rochester Regional Council of Hospital Auxiliaries.

St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary will be host to the meeting scheduled for the Dun Memorial Auditorium on Wednesday, April 6. Registration will start 10:30 a.m. and close at 3 p.m.
