Comedy Of Errors Set In Corning

Rev. Cyril R. Udal, G.S.B., director of the music department, will conduct the concert band. Mr. John Kilchen, O.S.A., associate director, will be guest conductor for "La Spagnola," a folk melody. Joseph Zawistowski, instrumental instructor, will conduct his own composition, "China Nights," written especially for the program.

SELECTIONS from the program include Purcell's Trumpet Tune, representing England; Brahms' First Symphony; Germany's contribution, Sogno by Frescobaldi; of Italy, Moussorgsky's Night on Bald Mountain; as a Russian offering, and America's Slaughter on Tenth Avenue by Richard Rodgers.

Soloists will include Michael Kasper, baritone; Charles Berry, flute; Gerald Kryk, clarinet and Mr. John Sorokil, band accompanist, at the piano.

Band marches by Sousa, New York numbers, by the Syncopated Clock, by Leroy Anderson, and Count Basie's One O'Clock Jump will complete the program.

Tickets may be obtained at the door. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.
