Honky Tonk

By SUZANNE WIGG
For honky tonk addicts and non-addicts alike, a new album on Mercury called "Honky Tonk Piano And A Hot Banjo" is the stars of this sardonic set are John Call, Banjoist and Lou Stein, pianist. Together they barrelhouse piano and red hot banjo team strum and drum their way through the loudest, roughest, recital of honky-tonk of the decade.

In reality, John Call is the mandolinist and guitarist on call by the Metropolitan Opera Company and the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra. Stein is the sophisticated jazz pianist who has been playing since he was 10. This unique, left-Poley-Redman piano album is the result of what the boys do on their nights off. Beginning with "Whispering" and followed by "The Dipsy Doodle," "Sweet Georgia Brown," "Ballin' The Jack," "Honeydew Rose" and "Basin Street Blues" the album simply rocks of sawdust, floor, smoky saloons and foamy filled steins.

There is no sitting still for this one. You'll either have to dance to it, tap your feet to it or turn it off. These barrelhouse virtuosos are backed up by a fine five-piece band. MOMMY!... MOMMY!... MOMMY!
To mothers, that cry means that there's another cut, scratch, scrape, or burn. It also means she should get going—but she often doesn't. Because iodine burns and stings, upsets youngsters. Here's good news. Science has discovered a new kind of iodine that stops infection best yet doesn't burn or sting. It's polyvinylpyrrolidone iodine found only in ISODINE-ANTISEPTIC. Wipes out types of antiseptics may kill only 1, 2, or 3 types of germs. ISODINE kills all types—even virus and fungus. And up to 40 times faster. Get ISODINE-ANTISEPTIC. Money-back guarantee.

Caesar, Titanic Set On TV Show

The "You Are There" television program seen on WNET-TV in Rochester, will present the following shows at 7:30 p.m. on the four Wednesdays of April: April 6, The Assassination of Julius Caesar; April 13, Sinking of the Titanic; April 20, Liberation of Paris; and April 27, Discovery of America.

Virtue Of Hope Topic On WMBO

The virtue of hope for today's Catholic is discussed in the newest series of 12 fifteen-minute Sacred Heart Program talks scheduled to begin next week on Station WMBO. The program is broadcast each Monday through Friday at 8 a.m., and copies of talks are available to anyone writing WMBO requesting Sacred Heart Nov. 5727-3738.

MADRIGAL SINGERS, shown above, will be among the many groups to participate in the Nazareth College Glee Club Concert at the Eastman Theatre on Sunday at 4 p.m.

Glee Club Concert Sunday

Music to appeal to every taste of three Rochester high schools, Miss Lucy Anne Conte from Nazareth College, Miss Mary Kay Schold from Our Lady of Mercy High School, and Miss Carolyn Tette from St. Agnes High School. "Hi, Ho, Sing Gally," a Swiss Folk Song, is one of the three numbers which will be presented.

THE ENTIRE Glee Club of 125 voices will be heard several times during the program. Among other numbers they will sing "O Bone Jesu" by Palestrina, and in keeping with the spirit of the month of March, they will present an Irish folk song "Follow Me Down to Carlow."

"The Sound of Music" title song from the new Rodgers and Hammerstein production now playing on Broadway, will be sung by the St. John Fisher Glee Club, and another Rodgers hit, "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning" from Oklahoma! by the Nazareth group. Cole Porter's "Night and Day" is a second selection in lighter vein which the Nazareth Glee Club will present.

Tickets are available at the college, or may be obtained at the box office on Sunday.

Last Chance

By RAY SMITH
The big day is coming and you only have until midnight of March 31st to have Uncle Sam postmark your postcard for the grand prize of 40 passes. Imagine all the pictures you'll be seeing until July 1st with this lot.

SOME HAVE asked me what are the choices in the four categories we have asked you to pick the winner. So, for the last time, here are the rules and possible selections. Pick the winner for the Best picture, the best actor, best actress, and best song which will win an ACADEMY AWARD on APRIL 4th. (P.S. You'll be able to see the whole show on T.V. that night.)

A postcard with your guesses must be postmarked no later than midnight of March 31st. None can be returned and a person may enter as many cards as he wishes. In case of a tie the card bearing the earliest postmark will be judged the winner. The lucky guesser will see his or her name in this column and will receive the passes by mail.

IT'S ONE OF THESE — Best Picture — "Anatomy of a Murder" Ben Hur; "The Diary of Anne Frank"; "The Nun's Story"; "Room at the Top"; Best Actor — Lawrence Harvey; Charlton Heston; Jack Lemmon; Paul Muni; James Stewart; Best Actress — Doris Day; Audrey Hepburn; Katherine Hepburn; Simone Signoret; Elizabeth Taylor. Best Song —

"The Best of Everything"; "The Five Pennies"; "The Hanging Tree"; "High Hopes"; "Strange Are the Ways of Love"; Hollywood keeps calling me on the phone for my guesses. My, I am so busy. So next week as the world is waiting to read this column, I'll be giving my choices and comments. I bet you can't wait.

CRUISING down Clinton Ave. on my tricycle I noticed that the Palace Theatre is packing fun in with "A DOG OF FLANDERS" which is a CinemaScope Deluxe color film to be seen by THE WHOLE FAMILY. It's a beautiful story for the kids as well as for adults. See it.

A COMEDY Western with Sophia Loren and Anthony Quinn pulls in to the Paramount Theatre for ADULTS ONLY by the name of "HELLER IN PINK TIGHTS." This isn't what you would see in "Guys and Dolls" but make the change will be good.

"Who Was That Lady?" I don't care because it is a "B" movie at the Loew's Theatre. Better things will be coming.

ELMIRA — You too are in luck in having the thoroughly charming "A DOG OF FLANDERS" at the Elmira Theatre for THE WHOLE FAMILY. It makes for an evening of true enjoyment. But your luck didn't hold out at the Colonial Theatre for the "B" movie "The Gene Krupa Story" is there.

HORNELL — The easy way to get money at the roulette table is the offering at the Majestic Theatre in "SEVEN THIEVES FOR ADULTS ONLY." For some unknown reason this movie seems to relax the viewer with its story. It's O.K. UGH, Wednesday at the same Theatre "Suddenly, Last Summer" comes. If you want to be depressed, waste your money and see this one.
