AFRICA NEEDS HELP

Said the Holy Father to a mission group recently, in Kenya the people are waiting for African priests. Airplane is the quickest, thank God we have many. Our problem is to house them. Please help them do God's work. Send us a donation today. The RECTOR

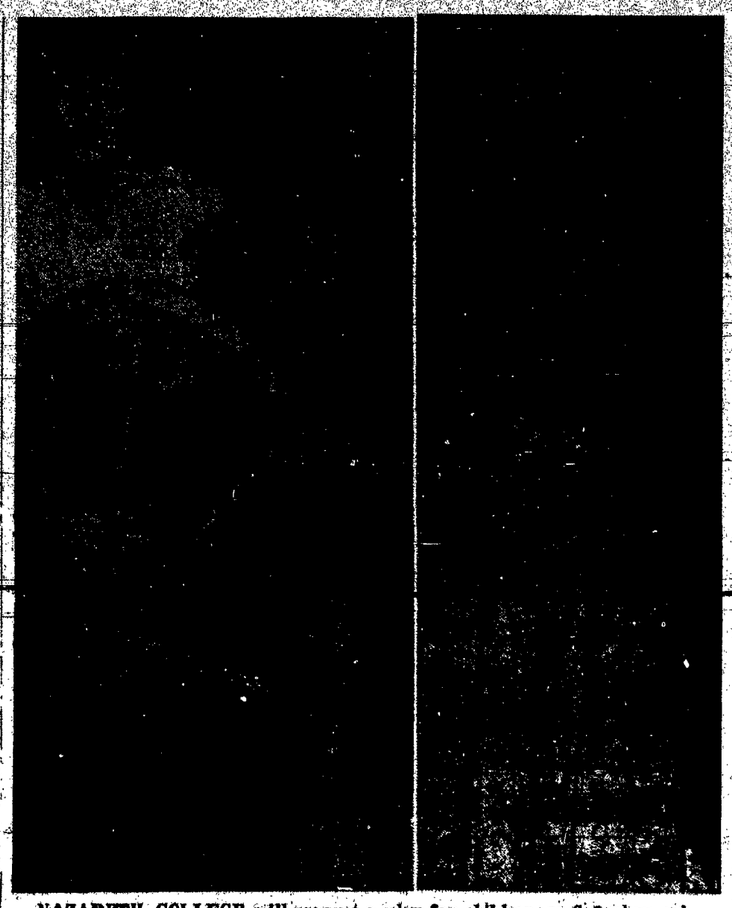
Lamoureux Orchestra Set For Concert

The Schumann Memorial Foundation will sponsor the final concert of the season on Sunday, April 3 at 8:30 p.m. at the Auditorium Theatre with the Lamoureaux Orchestra of Paris, directed by Igor Markevitch.

Scheduled on the program are Schubert's Symphony No. 5, the Beethoven Fifth, Debussy's "La Mer" and an orchestral suite from Manuel de Falla's "Three Cornered Hat". Tickets will be available at the Auditorium box-office.

THE FOUNDATION was created in memory of the composer Robert Schumann and his wife, Clara, to provide study and offer educational facilities for musicologists and students, and to foster the idea of world peace through music education.

Markevitch made his American debut with the Boston Symphony in 1955 after 30 years musical experience in Europe as pianist, composer and conductor. The Lamoureux Orchestra was founded in 1881 by Charles Lamoureux and has served to première musical masterworks of Raval, Dukas, Debussy, Saint-Saens, D'Indy and Roussel. Such artists as Pablo Casals and Yehudi Menuhin made their Paris debuts with the group.



NAZARETH COLLEGE will present a play for children on Saturday and Sunday. In rehearsal are from left, Patricia Ripple as the bad fairy, Gail Place as Princess Beauty, and Elaine Klingler as the good fairy.

Princess Beauty

College To Stage Play For Children

"Princess Beauty," by David Barnett, Jr., a comic adaptation of the fairy tale "Sleeping Beauty," will be presented at Nazareth College Auditorium on Saturday and Sunday, April 2 and 3. This is the first time that the speech and drama department at Nazareth has presented a children's play, and is part of an active program to meet the need for suitable entertainment for children.

MISS MARY ANN Steckbeck, instructor in the Speech and Drama department, is directing, and feels that its widest appeal will be to children from kindergarden age to fifth grade.

Dan Morgan will play the role of Prince Charming to the Princess Beauty of Miss Gail Place, a junior resident student. Richard Mancini, president of the Catholic Theatre in Rochester, will take the part of Sir Pufflegate.

MISS ELAINE Klingler, a freshman, will be seen as the Good Fairy. Miss Klingler is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Klingler of 302 Pinecrest Dr. In high school, she was active in dramatics, and twice received a "best actress" award. She was also the Rochester winner of the Bishop's speaking contest.

Miss Patricia Ripple, who will play the Bad Fairy, is a junior. She has appeared in several dramatic roles in college productions.

Others in the cast are Ian Sharlit as the King, Marie Mahoney as the Nurse, and Kathleen Scanlon as the Weaver.

Invitations have been issued to public and parochial school children in the Rochester area to attend. There will be matinee performances on Saturday and Sunday at 2:30 p.m., and an evening performance at 8:30 p.m. on Sunday. Tickets are available at the door.

Watching The Screen

My Guesses

By RAY SMITH

"Another special delivery from MGM?" "Twentieth Century Fox on the phone again? Tell them they'll just have to call my Chicago office." "Warner Brothers want another appointment? No, I'm just too busy." Hollywood, you'll just have to wait. My readers come first in knowing what I think about the Academy Awards. Anyhow, It's hard getting out of my strait-jacket every time the phone rings.

Our contest closed last night. The response has been terrific for which I thank you very much. I only hope I can go through all those cards after the night of April 4th to have the winner by the time the COURIER-JOURNAL goes to press for Friday's edition. If I'm a week late, excuse please. So sorry.

"BEN-HUR" is my choice for the top spot of the pictures. The only one that might sneak in to throw Ben out will be "The Nun's Story." I would like to see Jimmie Stewart get the Best Actor award for his lawyer part in "Anatomy of a Murder. His courtroom acting was some of the best I have ever seen. But didn't he ruling out Charlton Heston. He's great too but I want Jimmie.

In my humble opinion, Honorable Members, Audrey Hepburn is the only contender for the Best Actress Award. But last year Elizabeth Taylor was also in the running. I think she lost out because her personal life was in the headlines too much at that time. So, I predict (Drew Pearson copies me) that they'll give it to Elizabeth as they don't want her to be a two-time loser. Her acting was good but not that good.

My dear ear says that "The Best of Everything" will be the winning film. At this writing I must admit that my readers don't agree with me. It seems the choice of the majority is "High Hopes." We'll see who's right on Monday, April 4th. If I'm right, remember, I told you so. If you're correct, let's just forget about it. (What humility I have.)

So Hollywood, there they are. Now you can give the Awards.

IF THE Palace Theatre doesn't keep the very enjoyable "A DOG OF FLANDERS" for a second week for THE WHOLE FAMILY, them cops and robbers of the 20's will take over the screen in "THE PURPLE GANG" for ADULTS ONLY. Only fair, says yours truly.

THOSE DRUMS you hear sounding from the Paramount Theatre are from "MASTERS OF THE CONGO JUNGLE" for the WHOLE FAMILY. It's a good and refreshing change after all those westerns. But, partner, don't give up hope. The second feature is a shootim-tootin western.

MONNELL — I bet Manager Jim Macris hopes Liz Taylor wins an Academy Award because the Majestic Theatre has her film "Suddenly, Last Summer." Too depressing for me.

ELMIRA — Top drama with Robert Mitchum and Eleanor Parker is at the Elmira Theatre for ADULTS ONLY in "HOME FROM THE HILL." There is some real powerful acting in this 150-minute story. The Colonial Theatre turns into a courtroom for ADULTS ONLY in "THE STORY ON PAGE ONE." It just seems drama is the theme for all Elmira this week.
