Corning CDA Group Observes Patron's Feast

Corning — The Feast Day of St. Joseph, patron saint of Court St. Joseph Catholic Daughters of America, was observed by about 70 CDA members attending the annual breakfast in the Baron Steuben Hotel a week ago.

The Rev. Thomas Brennan, pastor of St. Mary's Church, was guest speaker and also gave the invocation. Guests and members were welcomed by Mrs. Mary Gernon, grand regent.

THOSE ATTENDING had received Communion in their respective parish churches prior to breakfast.

Father Brennan spoke on "The Lives And Works Of Recent Popes." He gave a brief account of the accomplishments and changes in church law, beginning with Pope Pius X through the present time of Pope John XXIII.

The speaker also reminded the group of the importance of the lay Catholic who work along with the priests and aid them to help spread the Catholic faith throughout the world.

Mrs. Catherine Ward and Mrs. Frick were co-chairmen.

Mrs. GERNON reminded members of the importance of the group and the breakfast will be sponsored by the Court Friday at 85 E. Market St., beginning at 8 a.m. Mrs. Louis Condon, Sr., and Mrs. Louis Condon, Jr., are co-chairmen with Mrs. Gernon in charge of the group. Members were asked to bring articles to the store Thursday noon.

Breakfast Set By Men's Group

Annual Communion and breakfast sponsored by the Sacred Heart Men's Society of St. Anthony's parish, Elmira, will be held on Palm Sunday, April 10.

MEMBERS WILL receive Holy Communion at 7:30 a.m. Mass and the breakfast will follow in Muzio's Restaurant.

Attorney Samuel J. Castellino will be the guest speaker. Joseph A. Cirilli will serve as toastmaster. Frank Mofka and Samuel "Mac" Mark are co-chairmen of arrangements.

Trophy Awards To Be Presented

Members of St. Patrick's Holy Name Society, Elmira, will meet in the auditorium on Thursday evening, April 7.

Highlighting the program will be the presentation of trophies to St. Patrick's Basketball team, champions of the "A" league of the Parochial Athletic Association of Corning.

GUEST SPEAKER for the occasion will be Peter Carlesimo, athletic director of the University of Scranton.

Rev. John S. Hayes will make the presentation of awards. He will be introduced by Father David B. Singerhoff, spiritual director. All men and high school boys are invited.

Easter Seal Lad

New York — (RNS) — Ten-year-old Johnny Kemp smiled shyly when Cardinal Spellman of New York blessed his rosary during a visit to the prelate's residence. Johnny, this year's national Easter Seal boy from Elmira, N. D., was in New York to help open the current nationwide Easter Seal Appeal which raises funds for crippled children and adults. Born without arms or legs, the boy uses steel hooks for hands and walks on artificial legs.

Foreign Students Highlight Meet

Albion — The Rosary and Altar Society of Immaculate Conception Church met Monday evening and was host to two foreign guests who entertained the members with talks regarding their countries.

SWEE HWA YAP of Semarang, Indonesia, and a graduate student in the School of Education at Cornell, described her country and traced the history of religious developments there.

Miss Pamela Flynn of Ireland and a teacher in the Spencer school system, contrasted the role of a teacher in Irish schools and in American schools.
