GOAL OF CORNING CAMPAIGN — This is architect's drawing of new 8-classroom school planned in Corning's St. Patrick's parish under $150,000 campaign which opened last Sunday. It will face Denison Pkwy. East, and extend along Steuben St., east of present school. A parish hall containing kitchen and floor space of over 3,500 square feet for meetings and dinners, is included in the plans. Classroom area will cover 11,000 square feet.

$150,000 Drive Launched In Corning

Corning — The general solicitation for $150,000 to build a new parochial grade school in St. Patrick's Parish received a boost last Saturday night when nearly 200 men of the church heard Auxiliary Bishop Lawrence B. Casey address them on the need for further educational facilities in the diocese.

Bishop Casey was keynote speaker at the campaign kick-off dinner in the Baron Steuben Hotel, with Karl L. Gaiss, drive chairman, serving as toastmaster.

Sunday afternoon the 200 men began contacting the individual homes of St. Patrick's parishioners. Earlier in the week, at another meeting, it was reported that more than 50 per cent of the special gifts donors had been contacted to get the drive off to a flying start. J. Edward Barry heads this committee.

"THE OUTLOOK for the success of this campaign is good," Bishop Casey said, "because our Catholic people always come through when the need is there."

He asserted that St. Patrick's Parish needs a new school and added that members of the parish have found the training of their children by nuns to be of a high order.

During the hotel speaking program, it was announced that advance pledges to St. Patrick's School Fund to date total about $60,000.

Leo Devany of Foley Associates, Rochester, who is directing the drive, instructed the general solicitation workers and district of Rochester, secretary to Bishop Kearney; the Rev. William M. Roche of Rochester, a former Corningite and now superintendent of Rochester Diocesan schools.

The Rev. William Tobin, administrator of St. Patrick's Parish; the Rev. James Baker, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's; the Rev. Thomas Brennan, pastor of St. Mary's, and the Rev. James Slattery, assistant pastor of St. Vincent De Paul's.

THE FINANCE plan for the new 8-classroom school at Denison Pkwy. and Steuben St. will run for a period of 156 weeks, providing four tax years in which pledges may be paid in envelopes returnable on a weekly, monthly or quarterly basis. Each wagearner in the parish is asked to give one day's pay each month during the three year period.

The school will have a classroom area of more than 11,000 square feet. Plans call for a parish hall, with kitchen space and more than 3,500 square feet for meetings and dinners.

At the kickoff dinner, several clergymen in attendance were introduced, including: the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward J. McAniff
