

Hospital Units Meet At St. Joseph's, Elmira

Elmira — Approximately 125 members from 15 hospitals participated in the Spring meeting of Auxiliaries of the Rochester Hospital Association at St. Joseph's Hospital on April 6.

Representatives of the 11 County Rochester Regional Area were from Rochester, Brockport, Bath, Corning, Hornell, Wayville, Montour Falls, Ithaca and both Elmira hospitals.

The opening assembly in the auditorium was presided over by Mrs. J. Wallace Ely, Chairman of the Hospital Auxiliary of a member of the Coming Hospital Auxiliary.

SISTER ANNE Maurice, Director of Nursing, St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing welcomed the Auxiliary women and expressed appreciation for the work done by hospital volunteers.

Mrs. Newton Millman of Glen Cove, Long Island, a member of the Executive Committee of the Conference for Hospital Auxiliaries of the New York State Hospital Association spoke on the group concerning the Mid-Atlantic Conference of Hospital Auxiliaries to be held in Albany City — April 26, 27 and 28.

Mr. Robert Carson, Chairman of the Conference of Hospital Auxiliaries of the New York State Hospital Association outlined the program of the Conference. This Conference was organized three years ago and has been acclaimed highly successful by the State Hospital Association.

Following the general session, those attending formed three discussion groups. These groups were: (1) "Junior Volunteers" and the Chairman of this group was Mrs. A. Welling Wyckoff, Chairman of the Junior Volunteers of the Arnot-Ogden Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Wyckoff discussed the program of the Junior Volunteers at the Arnot-Ogden. (2) "Stimulating Programs for Hospital Auxiliaries" and the Chairman was Mrs. Newton Millman. Mrs. Millman discussed various programs of interest to hospital auxiliaries.

(3) "Trends in Nursing Education" with Miss Esther Thompson, Nursing Consultant, Rochester Regional Hospital Council and Chairman of the Division of Nursing, University of Rochester as group leader. Miss Thompson discussed various trends in nursing education, including associate degree and three-year diploma nursing programs.

MEMBERS participated in group discussion of all three topics following the speaker's presentation.

The first speaker of the after which are currently being made throughout the state relative to Robinson, Assistant Director of Hospital pre-payment insurance to the Hospital Association of New York State. Robinson lauded the governing hospital personnel work of hospital auxiliaries throughout the state and urged plans currently being made in them to continue with their valuable assistance. The speaker summarized recent legislation affecting hospitals.

Robinson was followed by Joann De Soto, Executive Director, Rochester Regional Hospital Council. Henry expressed his appreciation for the auxiliary members of the Auxiliary Board group as discussed studies of Directors.

MISS DE SOCIO, was Chairman of the Committee on arrangements for the meeting. Miss De Soto was assisted by Mrs. M. T. Smith, Vice Chairman of the Coming Hospital Auxiliary.

Miss De Soto, President of St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary, presided over the group.
