THE WEEKLY NOTE FROM MR. PEPSI:

The days of Spring are days of wanting to just sit and watch the sky, count the budding leaves or close ones eyes and smell the cool freshness.

It's a known fact (just look around you) that friendly smiles are more in abundance. Spring's budding earth brings us renewed vigor with the summer's sweltering heat.

It seems that men's personality cycles match nature's. (Heaven forbid that nature's personality ever match men's!)
