REV. JAMES C. LANE, pastor of St. Aloysius Church, Auburn, is shown at the newly installed altar, designed and installed by William J. Woerner and Sons, Rochester.

St. Aloysius Sanctuary Renovation Underway

Auburn — The Rev. James C. Lane, pastor of St. Aloysius Church, Auburn, has announced that the renovations to the interior of the church will be completed in time for the Forty Hours beginning Sunday, May 15.

Included in the work is a new main altar designed and installed by William J. Woerner and Sons of Rochester. The sanctuary has been enlarged and new lighting installed.

NEW STATUES, purchased from the DePrato Studios of Chicago have been placed in the church with a new statue of St. Aloysius, patron of the parish, set on a pedestal over the main altar against the rear wall of the sanctuary.

The entire sanctuary has been recarpeted and new carpeting will cover all the aisles and rear of the church.

Father Lane extends an invitation to all to visit the church and inspect the work that has been done during the past month. It is planned to rededicate the rest of the church in the fall of 1960.

Holy Cross Civics Club Takes Honors

The St. Thomas Aquinas Civics Club of Grade 7, Holy Cross School, Rochester, was presented with a certificate of merit for community betterment by the Commission on American Citizenship of the Catholic University of America.

This award was one of the given to Catholic Civics Clubs throughout the Nation for outstanding activities aimed at improvement of citizenship in its members.

USING THE THEME "Communism versus Democracy" the boys and girls wrote to groups with similar aims for information on the subject. Among those contacted were the "Commandos", a select group from Father Kenneth Murphy's teen age Decency Gang, the "Hawks" of Charlestown, Massachusetts.

Much work was done on posters, bulletin board displays, debates and discussions in order to make the club members aware of the menace of Communism as opposed to our democratic way of life.

Mary Ann Weishar, Our Lady of Mercy High School senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Weishar, 62 Brett Road, has been awarded a scholarship to Marywood College in Scranton, Pennsylvania.

Mary Ann received her notice from Sister Mary Culbert, Dean of Marywood.

Active on the Vignette staff, Mary Ann is a reporter on the Quill staff and a member of the science club at Mercy.
