

Girl Scouts Meet Senator

County Scout Girl Scout troop 449 recently returned from a camping trip to Girl Scout Camp Rockwood at Bethesda, Md. While there they toured Washington, D.C. where they were received by Senator Kenneth B. Keating. Taking the trip with the girls were Mrs. David Willis, leader, Mrs. Wm. McBride and Mrs. Alvin Effinger, co-leaders.

New York CDA Sets Convention In Albany

The New York State Court of the Catholic Daughters of America will hold its twenty-seventh biennial convention at the Sheraton-Ten Eyck Hotel in Albany, May 15-20, as announced by Mrs. Margaret D. Lamco, of Chateaugay, State Regent.

Nearly 250 delegates, in addition to other officers and members of the organization, will attend the convention. Miss Alice Connors, grand regent of the Albany court and district deputy, is serving as local convention chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ellen Comau, district deputy from Watervliet, as co-chairman.

Registration will take place on Monday afternoon, May 14. On Monday evening, Court Mary Regis, No. 638, of Albany, will be hostess at a reception for the delegates to the convention.

On Tuesday morning at 10 a.m., the convention will open with a Solemn Pontifical Mass at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, with Bishop William A. Scully, of Albany, as celebrant.

The convention banquet will be held on Tuesday evening, May 16, at the Sheraton-Ten Eyck Hotel.

Fashion Show

Students in the Home Economics classes at Our Lady of Mercy High School will present a Fashion Show Wednesday, May 11, in the school auditorium for the student body and the mothers of the Parents Association.

The show will precede a tea given for the mothers of the graduating class by the Parents Association. Senior Katharine Fessenden will be the commentator and senior Virginia Gurnow will help design the setting for the 75 girls who will model mostly spring fashions made in class this year, under the training of Sister Mary Dames and Sister Mary de Chantal.

60th Baptism

His 60th birthday and baptism anniversary are being celebrated by a young boy, Patrick J. O'Brien, of St. John's Evangelist Church, who is the 60th baby in the family to wear the dress which was made in 1888 for his maternal great-grandmother, the late Mrs. Patrick J. O'Brien of Washington, D.C. Parents are Mr. and Mrs. John C. O'Brien of 99 Windemere Road Rochester.

New Community Opens

A new development consisting of more than 200 homes will rise in the Kutchuck Hill section of the Town of Pittsford near St. Louis Church.

Developer of the 16-acre tract is Caldwell & Cook, Inc., the successful building firm which has built over 100 homes a year in such communities as Paddy Hill, Lakeview, South Lane and Pine Grove Manor.

Ground was broken May 1 for the Shyvoan, the first of these distinctive homes, priced generally from $42,000 to $57,000 and up. The tract will include colonial, ranch and modified split level homes.

At the outset of building, three-half models will be offered by Caldwell & Cook, in addition to custom models. The three are the Shyvoan, Ticonderoga and General Braddock.

The Ticonderoga is a colonial ranch style.

The Shyvoan is a colonial split level construction in the feature of the General Braddock.

Kutchuck Hill is a short three minute drive from the corner of Pittsford Village, via the Pittsford-Victor Rd. Elementary school, the high school and St. Louis Church are located in the Village.
