'Knowledge' Highlights Career Night

Geneva — A unique "Tree of Knowledge" focused attention on the "Career Night" program Monday in St. Francis de Sales School hall.

Sponsored by the Rosary Society of the parish, the program attracted a number of eighth grade students and their mothers. A panel of students from St. Francis de Sales High School presented the program.

Leaves of the artificial tree were decorated with slips of paper listing the various occupations and professions available to today's graduates. Two miniature figures, a boy and girl graduate, stood beneath the tree.

The Rev. Richard Hart, chaplain of St. Francis de Sales High School, was moderator of the panel. Panelists included Margaret Chester, whose subject was "The Sociality of Mary"; Robert Quigley, a senior at St. Francis de Sales High School; Kathleen Legett, a junior on "The Rules of St. Francis de Sales High School"; and Robert Connolly, a junior on "Clubs and Organizations at St. Francis de Sales High School."

During the meeting the Rosary Society announcement was made of the Communion and supper in the school hall at 6:30 p.m. May 19. The supper will be served in the school hall after the evening Mass in the church. Mrs. Dorothy McKenna is chairman.
