Cenacle Nuns To Celebrate Patron's Day

Cenacle nuns will observe their patronal feast tomorrow, Saturday.

Marking the feast will be a garden rite scheduled for Sunday at 2 p.m.

Rev. Magr. James C. McAniff will preach the sermon and give Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

RETREAT LEAGUE members will serve as hostesses at a tea following the ceremony. The Cenacle order traces its origin to a convent of nuns at La Louvesc, France, who aided pilgrims coming to the shrine of St. John Francis Regis. The Vatican in 1948 approved the nuns' program of giving retreats to lay women and authorized the title—Congregation of our Lady of the Retreat in the Cenacle—in honor of the nine day. Ascension to Pentecost, period of prayer spent by the Apostles in the Cenacle at Jerusalem.

Lay Catechists Receive Diplomas

Summer Sessions Set At McAuley College

July will be a busy month in the Special Services Wing of the new Catherine McAuley College building, and its four branch laboratories, according to Sister Mary de Pazi, dean of the college and director of the special services program.

Area students from second grade through college may elect any of the following offerings of the summer session: Remedial Reading, Speech Correction, psychological testing and guidance, instruction in the skill subjects: mathematics, English, and spelling. Workshops in conversational French will be conducted for elementary school students at the college laboratory and also in Auburn.

REGISTRATION for the summer session is being held during school hours on the following dates: Catherine McAuley College Reading Laboratory, June 6 and 7, Monday and Tuesday; Saint Salome School Branch, June 2, Thursday; Saint Louis School, Pittsford, June 8, Wednesday; Saint Michael School, Newark, June 3, Friday.

Donations Spur Holy Childhood Mail Campaign

Returns in the mail campaign for School of the Holy Childhood, Andrews St., are only three-quarters of the amount received last year, the Advisory Council reported today. The returns continue to come in a few each day and it is hoped to exceed last year's total.

COUNCIL MEMBERS are pleasantly surprised by the number of donations received from people who have never given before to the school for exceptional children. And persons desiring to give may do so by addressing it to School of the Holy Childhood, P.O. Box 4098, Brighton Station, Rochester 10, N.Y. Funds will be used to carry on next year's work at the school.
