Nurses Honor Bishop Kearney

Auburn—Nurses charged with the care of the sick have a responsibility to periodically renew spiritual inspiration as well as medical techniques, Bishop Kearney told the members of the Auburn Unit National Council of Catholic Nurses, yesterday at a breakfast held at Springdale Hotel.

The breakfast was presided over by a Mass celebrated by the Bishop at Holy Family Church at 12:15 p.m. attended by 140 nurses and professional nurses and practical nurses. Bishop Kearney said that "the renewal of our faith is a time of spiritual growth which will provide direction, guidance, instruction and inspiration to the nurses who will carry this way to those to whom they minister and to all sick and suffering."

BISHOP KEARNEY was introduced by Rev. Paul Schnacky, assistant pastor of Holy Family Church and moderator of the nurses unit. The blessing and thanksgiving were given by Rev. R. J. Magr. James D. Cuffney, administrator of St. Mary's Church and dean of the Cayuga Diocese. Area pastors were present at the breakfast.

Miss Anne F. Falvey, chairman of the unit, presided as toastmistress and music was provided by Gerald Corroy. Special guests introduced by Joey Cororan, Frank Hoseny and Eddie Kaiter.

FATHER VOGT was presented a leather wallet, key case and a gift of money. A guest book was signed by all present and given to the honored guest.

Sister Maureen is a new member of the board of directors of the American Nurses Association. Also introduced was Sister M. Sheila, director of nursing at St. Joseph's Hospital, Syracuse.

SISTER M. AMATA and Mrs. Reynolds VanScyok served as emcees.

Succeeds Own Sister

Catholic Nurses Elect Genevan Mrs. Linehan

Geneva—When her sister, Mrs. Edmund Linehan, R. N., stepped out of the role of president of Rochester Diocesan Council of Catholic Nurses this week, Mrs. Robert B. Linehan R.N., succeeded her.

The two sisters are prominent in local and area nursing organizations and active in civic and community affairs.

The retiring president, Mrs. Edmund Linehan, who was first president of the Council, has just completed two terms as president. She was recently re-elected to office as Grand Regent of Court Annunciation of Catholic Daughters of America.

Mrs. Robert Linehan, the new Council president, has served as secretary of Geneva Chapter of Catholic Nurses and is presiding member of Geneva Annunciation, CDA.

Auburn CDA Reelects Mrs. Salzer

Auburn—Mrs. Lawrence C. Salzer was re-elected grand regent of Court Auburn-263 Catholic Daughters of America at the May meeting in the Court home, 44 South Street. Other officers are Mrs. John C. O'Boyle, vice grand regent; Mrs. John E. Foster, financial secretary; Mrs. James T. Kenny, historian; Mrs. Peter Y. Cool, sentinel; Miss Marie Dooley, lecturer; and Miss Benjamin J. Cox, prophetess.

Newly elected officers are Mrs. Fred L. Risser, treasurer; Mrs. Evelyn E. Murray, monitor; Mrs. William H. Byrne, hostess; and Miss Mary F. Duxon, organist.

DIRECTORS INCLUDE Miss Elizabeth A. Hanson, Mrs. Frank L. Doyle, Mrs. Stanley Lewis, Miss Anne M. Speter, Mrs. Ella Donahue, Miss Dorothy Tracy, Mrs. Patrick J. Mulhally, Mrs. William H. Kerns and Miss Gertrude M. Kennedy.

Miss Agnes M. Fardin announced that awards of the winners in the poetry contest sponsored by the Court will be made at the June meeting.

Mrs. Terrence J. Dolan, Mrs. Joseph H. Farley, Mrs. Frank Murphy, Mrs. Leon G. Mirner, and Mrs. Edward V. Pfeiffer took place in a ceremony May 1 at the home.

Mrs. Joseph A. McLeh and Mrs. Bridget Tully have scheduled a rummage sale for June 3 and 4.

Mrs. George M. Frank will be in charge of the June 13 supper meeting. Mrs. Harry Patrick of North Rose, district deputy, will install the officers at the June meeting.

Auburn—The May meeting was presided by a supper at which Mrs. Joseph T. Wallace was chairman and Mrs. Joseph A. Murphy, co-chairman. Committee members were Mrs. Thomas Ryan, Mrs. Peter Y. Cool, Mrs. William H. Hickey, Miss Nora Corrigan, Mrs. Thomas W. Scott and Mrs. John Madden. Mrs. Fred L. Risser headed the nominating committee which presented the slate of officers.

Mothers Club Slates Banquet

Auburn—The Mothers Club of St. Mary's Parish will hold their annual banquet at Springdale Inn on Wednesday, June 1 at 6:30 p.m. Installation of officers will take place at this time.

MRS. RICHARD GUNGER is chairman of arrangements for the banquet, committees with Mrs. Martin Byrne, co-chairman. Reservations should be made by Friday, May 27, with Mrs. Frank Marullo.

Rev. Gerald Connor of St. Alphonsus Parish will be the guest speaker.

Auburn Falcon Units To Hold Field Meet

Auburn—One hundred and fifty children will participate in St. Hyacinth's field meet on Memorial Day. The annual event sponsored by Auburn Polish Falcons and Falconettes will begin at 1 p.m. at Falcon Hall on Fulkerson Street.

Students will parade from the club in Falcon Park via Washington and Union Streets escorted by Swietonowski-Kopczak American Legion Post 1324 color guard.

THE MEET will open with the raising of the flag and the singing of the national anthem by Joan Barak; a prayer by Rev. Edward Kurdiel, D.F. Conv., assistant pastor of St. Hyacinth's Church and a moment of silence in memory of Stanley May, co-organizer of the field day.

There will be four events being played simultaneously during the afternoon. Grade through 8 will compete in dashes, baseball, volleyball, softball and broad jumps. Medals will be awarded at the conclusion of the events.

Committees for the field day are: Father Kurdiel, honorary chairman; John Sikorski, general chairman; Miss Virginia May, Miss Betty Pieluszek, Clara Waldenauer, Walter Dryda, James Roschick and Fred Pils.

51 Socialists Attend Retreat

Auburn—Fifty-one boys, socialists from 125 parishes of the Diocese of Rochester, spent last weekend making a closed retreat at Camp Columbus, Oswego Lake, Auburn, under the direction of the Rev. Vincent McDonald, O.C.M.

FATHER McDONALD is on the faculty at St. Carmel High School, Auburn.

This was the third closed retreat for boys sponsored by the Diocesan Parish Sodality Union. Each all the girls have the opportunity to make their closed retreat at the Canisius Retreat House. In this way both the boys and girls are able to fulfill the precept of the Sodality rule which calls for an annual closed retreat.

Alan Glosner, newly elected president of the Parish Sodality Union, acted as retreat chairman. He was assisted by the retreat officers of the Sodality Union and by representatives in the various churches.
