disjoily became possessed of a strength which sent them out of hiding to preach to the world, fearlessly and until death, the Gospel of Christ. Their love of God was set aliams by the lafasion of the Holy Spirit.

The fire of love, for God and souls, is burning in the hearts of MICHAEL and EUTHYMIO, two GREEK boys, who are studying for the priesthood in Rome. During their years in the seminary they will pray fervently to the Holy Chost to fan the flame of this love so that, throughout their entire priestly ministry, their strength in preaching the Gospel will be as that of the Apostles after they were filled with the Holy Spirit.
