

Unit Reelects Mrs. Hutson

Mrs. Charles E. Hutson was re-elected president of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and Rosary Society of St. Alphonsus Church at the annual May meeting and banquet at Springfield Inn. Guest speaker was the Rev. Clarence Gardner, chaplain at Auburn Prison.

The Rev. Francis C. Waterstreet, pastor, spoke, as did the Revs. Robert Kreckel, Gerald Connor and Paul Fremmeser, assistant pastors.

MRS. RAYMOND LEWIS was toastmaster. Mrs. Clarence M. Maywalt played dinner music and led the group singing.

Officers elected to serve with Mrs. Hutson were: Vice-president, Mrs. Edward Vanderpool; secretary, Mrs. Martin Brennan; and treasurer, Mrs. William A. Hockborn.

Mrs. Eugenia Forgette as the oldest member present was the recipient of a corsage. Mrs. Frank Murphy was banquet chairman.

UR Head Going To South Africa

Dr. Cornelius W. de Kiewiet, president of the University of Rochester, and an authority on South African history and economics, has been selected to give the annual R. F. Hoernle Memorial Lecture at the South African Institute of Race Relations in Durban. The lecture is considered the most important event in the field of race relations in South Africa.

St. Agnes Girls To Be Feted

Spelling Proficiency Certificates will be awarded at a buffet supper held at the Manger Hotel by the National Office Management Association on Wednesday, June 8.

The certificates will be given to participants of an international spelling contest held earlier this year, in which the contestants spelled correctly two 100-word tests.

FROM ST. AGNES High School winners include Carolyn Piazza, Lorraine D'Ovidio, Lorna Diekonak, Marleen Kelley, Nancy Kelly, Mary Lou Kane and Mary Ellen McHugh.

Certificates of merit will be given to the following girls who were successful on one of the one-hundred-word contests: Ann Marie Rappi, Marie Nunn, Rosemary Diehl, Kathleen Mitchell, Marianne Rock, Tetha Greene, Madeline Biondi, Janet Froehner and Verne Jean Magrino.

The NYOMA sponsors this test each year as a means of improving spelling in business offices.

Scout Rite Next Friday

Boy Scouts of the Diocese will receive the Ad Altars Del award from Bishop Kearney in a rite at St. Anne's Church, Rochester, Friday, June 10, at 8 p.m.

132 Scouts and Explorers are scheduled for the top religious honor of the Scouting program. This total is the highest in diocesan history.

Chairman of the awards ceremony is Robert H. Hayward of the Bishop's Catholic Committee on Scouting.

Sodalists Hold May Day Rite At Mt. Carmel

Auburn—The annual Sodality-sponsored May Day was held at Our Lady of Mount Carmel High School, Auburn, on Monday, May 23.

Eunice Bergeron, who was selected as May Queen by the Sodality of the school, led the procession with her attendants.

The crowning of the statue of Our Lady by the May Queen was the climax of the ceremony.

The entire student body participated in the program by singing hymns in honor of Our Lady, and by formally consecrating themselves to Our Lady and to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

THE CEREMONY was solemnly closed with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament given by Father Daniel Lynch, O. Carm.

Veteran Aide, Mrs. Hanover Requiem Held

Funeral Mass for Mrs. May Radcliff Hanover, a leader in volunteer work at St. Mary's Hospital for many years, was offered in Blessed Sacrament Church, Thursday, June 2.

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Thomas F. Connors assisted by the Rev. Francis M. Feeney, deacon and the Rev. John L. Conahan, subdeacon.

Mrs. Hanover, widow of Edward A. Hanover, died Monday, May 30, 1960 in her home, 231 Barrington St. after six months' illness.

She was a member of the Women's Board of St. Mary's Hospital for the last 18 years and chairman of the hospital's Evening Aide Services for 10.

MRS. HANOVER was a member of the first Seton Branch and chairman of the 7th Seton Branch of the hospital. She served many years in the hospital's library service.

A member of the Hemlock Twig of General Hospital, she was also a member of the Rochester Guild for Crippled Children.

Mrs. Hanover was a graduate of the old Livingston Park Seminary and at the time of her death was president of the Livingston Park Seminary Association.

Mrs. Hanover leaves no immediate survivors.

Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Franciscan Tertiaries Slate Bus Pilgrimage

A bus pilgrimage, open to the public, will be conducted Sunday, June 19, by the Third Order of St. Francis of Assisi. The seventh annual pilgrimage will include stops at the new Our Lady of Fatima Shrine at Youngstown, and St. Patrick's Churches at Niagara Falls and Buffalo, N.Y.

Buses will leave Holy Cross at 8 a.m. and will return at 8:30 p.m.

At Youngstown, the newly enshrined statue of Our Lady of Fatima will be observed, as well as processions around the "Rosary of the Light" pool. Recently completed landscaping, enhancing the marble statue about the grounds, will be of interest.

A late breakfast at a Niagara Falls restaurant and a full-course dinner in Buffalo is included in a $6.00 pilgrimage ticket.

IN BUFFALO, a Solemn Mass will be celebrated in St. Patrick's Church at 4 p.m. by the Very Rev. Celsus Wheeler, O.F.M., Provincial of all Franciscans in Holy Name Province, and a sermon will be delivered by the outstanding theologian and canonist, the Very Rev. Callistus Smith, O.F.M., J.C.D.

Father Bonaventure Brown, O.F.M., provincial director of the Third Order said:

"It has been said that the power of united group prayer is something that can be felt as well as heard—in public pilgrimages, especially, one can be aware of the intense faith of participants. Visitors to our Lady's internationally known shrine at Lourdes are lifted to new fervor under impact of swelling choruses ascending to heaven. One becomes a shepherd U. of Rochester.
