

FATHER LOOP

Franciscan,
Avoca Native
Marks 25 Years

St. Bonaventure, N.Y. — The Rev. Aurelius Loop, Franciscan priest faculty member of St. Bonaventure University marked his silver jubilee of ordination with a Mass of Thanksgiving on Tuesday, May 31.

A native of the Rochester Diocese, Father Loop was born in Avoca, N.Y., and has been general manager and treasurer of the university since 1932. He first joined the faculty in 1937 as a teacher of chemistry. It was as professor of chemistry that he won commendation from the U.S. Navy for his training of naval cadets who were on campus during the early days of the second World War.

He holds the B.A. degree from St. Bonaventure and the master's degree from Columbia. Father Loop's mother, Mrs. Ernest Loop, resides in Oliver St., Avoca.

Elmira — The Elmsa Knights of Columbus Auxiliary, Council 277, re-elected the following officers at their monthly business meeting held Tuesday, May 24: Mrs. Joseph Conway, president; Mrs. Charles St. Riney, vice president; Mrs. William Gray, secretary; Mrs. John Barrett, treasurer; Mrs. Earlard Mancini, guard and Mrs. Michael Leary, trustee.

Mrs. John Quinn, Mrs. Bernard Dunlavy and Mrs. Elbert Randall served on the nominating committee. The officers will be installed at a dinner to be held at Taussanock Farms Inn on June 14 with Mrs. Hart Scofield and Mrs. James McCarthy in charge of arrangements.

THE HIGHLIGHT of the evening was the initiation of twenty-two new members. Mrs. John Heron, Membership Chairman, assisted by Mrs. Mancini and Mrs. Quinn, presented the new members to Mrs. Conway, the installing officer.

AOH Convention Set For Elmira

More than 1,000 members of the Ancient-Order of Hibernians and Ladies Auxiliary are expected to attend the 70th Biennial New York State Convention which opens in Elmira Wednesday, June 22.

The Mark Twain Hotel will serve as official convention headquarters and registration will be held there June 22 and 23.

The convention will officially open on June 23 with a Solemn Mass at St. Patrick's Church. The Mass will be celebrated by the Very Rev. Donald M. O'Connell, O.P., Prior Provincial, New York State Chaplain who will later serve as main speaker at the breakfast.

BISHOP KEARNEY will preside at the Mass and preach the sermon. Preceding the Mass, the Hibernians will parade from the hotel to the church.

Business sessions are scheduled for the balance of the day with the evening turned over to an "Irish Night" and a social hour, sponsored by the Elmira.

Lima Pastor Marks
45 Years As Priest

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. John M. Ball, V.F., pastor of St. Rose Church, Lima, will observe the 45th anniversary of his ordination on Sunday, June 12.

The parishioners plan to honor Msgr. Ball, who has been pastor at St. Rose for the past 24 years, by presenting him with a special gift at a reception on the church lawn, Sunday at 2 p.m. Preceding the reception, sponsored by the various organizations of the parish, there will be prayers of thanksgiving and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in church.

THE GENERAL CHAIRMAN in charge of arrangements is James H. Gleason, Town Supervisor of Lima, and the chairman of the reception committee is Miss Mary Parisella.

All former members of St. Rose parish and friends of the jubilarian are invited.

Msgr. Ball, son of Edward C. and Maria Kavanagh Ball, was born in Rochester on May 24, 1890. After attending St. Monica's grammar school, Rochester, he began his studies for the priesthood at St. Ann's and St. Bernard's Seminary. He was ordained on June 12, 1915, by the late Archbishop Thomas F. Hickey in the old St. Patrick's Cathedral. His first appointment as a newly-ordained priest was as assistant

KC Bulletin
Judged Tops
In State

The New York State Council "Special Award for the Best Portrayal of Catholic Journalism" was awarded to the K of C Bulletin published by the Knights of Columbus Council 278.

Judged by the managing editors of four leading New York dailies, the award is based on format, writing style, news content and an editorial policy closely allied to the principles of modern day Catholic journalism. To be considered for this award the publication must excel in all four categories.

The presentation was made at the Sixty-Fifth Annual Meeting of the New York State Council of Knights of Columbus, held at the Park Sheraton Hotel in New York City on May 28 and 29.

GRAND KNIGHT Vincent L. Hannon accepted the award for the Council from State Deputy Emmett Burke, Supreme Secretary Joseph Lamb and State Chairman Joseph Minichini.

Congratulations from the State Officers were extended to the Managing Editor Jack Burnett by Grand Knight. Official recognition of the Editor will be at the regular meeting on Thursday, June 2.

106 Receive Degree At KC Ceremony

Corning — A class of 106 Catholic men from the Southern Tier of New York State and the Wellsville area of Northern Pennsylvania received the coveted third degree of the Knights of Columbus during formal ceremonies in the local home of Corning Council, Knights of Columbus, a week ago.

It was the first time that the degree had been staged locally since 1954.

Awards Made To Athletes

Notre Dame High School's initial Father-Son Sports Banquet was held at the school in Elmira on May 26. Marty Harrigan, football coach at Elmira Free Academy, was principal speaker. His topic "Why Sports?" stressed the importance of sports competition.

THE PROGRAM included the presentation of awards to basketball, baseball, football, track and golf team participants. Letters also went to junior varsity athletes and to varsity and JV cheerleaders. They were presented by Coaches Ed Rothwell and Jim Haggerty and Rev. Joseph Hogan, chaplain of the school.

Special trophies went to Bill Knox for basketball; Pat Latta, baseball; Larry Sullivan and Dick DePaul, football; Charles Bright, track; and Mike DeSocio, golf. All-around athlete awards went to Larry Spillan and Jerry Coveney. The Father Joseph P. Hogan Scholarship Award was merited by Tom Hope.

Forty Hours

Devotions of the Forty Hours will be conducted in the following churches of the Diocese of Rochester: Sunday, June 5 — St. James, Rochester; St. Dominic, Elmsville.

MSGR. JOHN BALL

came assistant at St. Ann's in Elmira. After one year, he returned to St. Mary's in Auburn and remained here until 1925 when he was appointed pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Cato.

IT WAS ON July 3, 1934 that Monsignor Ball came to St. Rose in Lima where he has been pastor for over a quarter of a century.

The late Cardinal Mooney, then Bishop of Rochester, appointed Father Ball as the first Rural Life Director in 1936, a position he held for five years. Under the guidance of Father Ball the present system of Rural Vacation Schools was established. In 1954 Bishop Kearney appointed him Dean of Livingston County. Two years later he was made a Domestic Prelate.
