Twin Priests
Ordained
Cleveland — (RNS) — After watching his identical twin son ordained into the Catholic priesthood, Joseph Costello, a typographer on an Akron (O.) newspaper, beamed proudly, but added a caveat: not all the joys of my children are going into religious vocations, too.

The twin priests are the Rev. James Philip and Joseph J. Costello. Their ordination was believed to have been the first ever of identical twins in the Diocese of Cleveland.

English OK'd
For England
London — (RNS) — A new edition of Brereton's Ritual for the Roman Catholic clergy of England and Wales is scheduled for publication in late autumn. The revised manual of rites and blessings will extend to English and Welsh Catholics and concessions for the use of the vernacular in the rite of Baptism and Extreme Unction that was granted to other English-speaking countries several years ago by the Sacred Congregation of Rites.
