Prayer Day Held By Third Order

Elmira — Members of Immaculate Conception Third Order of St. Francis had a day of recollection, Sunday, June 12 beginning at 2 p.m. in Parish Hall.

Rev. William Thomas, director, conducted the spiritual exercises.

Father Thomas explained that "St. Francis did not try to introduce a new way of life but rather he saw God in all creatures and molded his entire life according to God's Holy Will."

The director explained further that each person has what may be called a predominant fault which he should endeavor to correct.

Meditation followed. Each one was asked to search for his or her particular fault.

SECOND TALK was aimed at assisting the retreatants to overcome faults.

Another meditation followed during which good resolutions could be formed. Members were asked to be faithful in amendment of life.

Final talk was a comparison on Prayer. Prayers of a sect are valuable, they were told, and even necessary at times but as prayer consists of raising one's mind and heart to God, often times we are more sincere when we formulate prayers from the heart in our own words.

Day was concluded with participation in Miraculous Medal and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Coming Unit Holds Tea

Canastota — The annual Spring tea of Coming Council, National Council of Catholic Women, attracted 80 members to the Baron Steuben Hotel a week ago to hear a talk by a Rochester priest.

The Rev. Leo McMahon of Rochester, Diocesan Council moderator, was guest speaker. His topic was "A Catholic Woman's Image Today."

The speaker said in part: "In the stress of our modern times, it is essential that we not only make our lives reflect the Christian image but that we take an active part in country and world affairs, so that all people recognize the Christian values that we feel are necessary."

THE OPENING prayer was given by the Rev. James Slattery, assistant pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's Church. Several vocal selections were presented by Xavier Paltan Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Thomas Slattery. Mrs. Anthony Gail was general chairman of the tea and Mrs. Frank Antonacci in charge of the shrine decorations.

Corning Theatre Opens June 20

The Corning Summer Theatre opens on June 20 in the air-conditioned auditorium of the Corning Glass Center, with the mystery-musical "Redhead." A full eleven-show schedule will be seen this summer. This is for the southern tier playhouse, the tenth anniversary season.

Squires Sponsor 'Bee' For Elmira Youth

The Monsignor William J. Brien Circle No. 1173 Squires, Elmira, held a spelling "bee" at Columbus Center recently. Champion speller was Karen Clate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Clate of 311 West First St., a pupil at St. Cecilia's School. Runners-up were Carina Cesari, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry A. Cesari of 610 West Clinton St., a pupil at St. Anthony's School, and Don Carmody, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Carmody of 125 Grandview Ave., a student at Our Lady of Lourdes School.

THE CONTEST, intended to be an annual affair, was open to members of the sixth grade in the Catholic schools in the Elmira area. Each school held a preliminary "spell down" to determine its two representatives to enter in the final. Besides the winning schools, other participating schools included St. Patrick's and St. Mary's.

Prizes appropriate for the Year of the Sacred Heart were awarded to the winners by the Squires.

Nurses' Class Of '35 Hold Reunion In Elmira

Sixteen members of the Class of 1935 of the St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing held their 25th reunion Saturday, June 11 in Elmira.

They attended Mass at 11 a.m. celebrated by the Rev. Philip E. McMahon, hospital chaplain, in the Little Flower Chapel in the Dunn Memorial.

FATHER McMAHON spoke briefly at the close of the Mass. He congratulated the class on their anniversary, and expressed his pleasure at the spirit which prompted them to begin the day of joyful reunion with the Mass.

Sisters of the Hospital were in attendance and sang the Mass.

The class presented Sister Margaret Adelphi with a check to be used for the purchase of two holy water fonts to be placed at the entrance of the Little Flower Chapel. The fonts will have plaques designating them as gifts of the Class of 1935.

Following the Mass, the class enjoyed a luncheon at the Tom Sawyer Restaurant. In the evening, they attended the Annual Dinner Dance of St. Joseph's Hospital Alumnae Association at the Mark Twain Hotel.

OF THE twenty living members of the class, sixteen attended the reunion.

Those in attendance were: Helen Little, Alderson, Kathleen Murphy Carpenter, Mary Callahan Collins, Florence Featherman Lechner, Margaret Andrew McCarthy, Mary McGinnis McInerney, Jean Brady Murphy, and Marion Shearer O'Don. All of Elmira, except Mrs. Little.

Ladies Of Charity Schedule Events

AUDREY LINK, PUBLICITY DIRECTOR

Executive
Twenty years on June 19, the Ladies of Charity was formed by Miss Mary E. Fitzgerald through the help of the late Lady Armstrong, president of the New York organization. It was originally organized as a small committee to aid Catholic Family Service.

Three first affiliation ceremony took place at the Dunn Memorial Chapel with Bishop James E. Kearney of Rochester, honorary president of the local organization, officiating. It was followed by a Pontifical Mass at which the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John J. Lee and the Rev. Thomas J. Toole, honorary vice president and moderator, respectively, at that time, assisted.

There were about 100 women who joined and at that ceremony made solemn promises which established the first committee of the international organization in the Rochester Diocese. The first officers were: Pres., Miss Frances O'Connor; Vice Pres., Mrs. Helen Weiland; Secretary, Miss Mary Lennon; and Treas., Mrs. Joseph Bailey.

Today there are 427 members in the organization, 236 of which are active and 191 honorary. There are 10 active and 8 honorary committees, each working on charitable projects.

Infant of Prague
The Infant of Prague Committee will meet Mon. June 20 at 8 p.m. at the residence of Mrs. Francis D. Preston, 1320 Penna. Ave. They will plan for a summer picnic-meeting and a rummage sale to be held in Sept. The committee's total volunteer hours for the past year are 1,732. They have purchased 12 dozen pajamas for pediatrics.

Guardian Angel
A picnic supper and meeting will be held by the Guardian Angel Committee, Tues. June 21 at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Angelo F. Lucio, 1055 N. Main St. Miss Theresa Hourihan, Mrs. Joseph Amisano and Mrs. Owen Hofbauer are in charge of the supper.

At the business meeting following, plans will be made for a summer picnic and entertainment of "little sisters." The following new appointments have been made: secretary, Mrs. Angelo F. Lucio; hospital project, Mrs. Conrad Jucik; telephone committee, Mrs. Walter Lofstrom and Mrs. Joseph W. Giffune. The committee's total volunteer hours for the past year are 888.

St. Anne de Beaupre
A picnic supper and meeting will be held by the St. Anne de Beaupre Committee, Tues. June 21 at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Myrtle A. Edwards, 632 Broad St., Horseheads.

The total working hours volunteered by the members for the past year are 448.

Our Lady of Nazareth
Our Lady of Nazareth Committee will meet Wed. June 22, 2 to 5 p.m. at 374 Fulton St. This committee was the first committee of the Ladies of Charity to hold a regular meeting in April 1940. They have maintained an almost unbroken schedule of weekly meetings since that time. Some of the charter members are still working on the committee.

During the past year the members have sewn 10 quilts, 28 children's bathrobes, 48 pairs of children's pajamas, 12 chapel caps and 16 baby nightgowns which have been donated to Catholic Family Service.

There were about 100 women who joined and at that ceremony made solemn promises which established the first committee of the international organization in the Rochester Diocese. The first officers were: Pres., Miss Frances O'Connor; Vice Pres., Mrs. Helen Weiland; Secretary, Miss Mary Lennon; and Treas., Mrs. Joseph Bailey.

SCHOOL PLANS Under Study

Canastota — Plans for the proposed new St. Patrick's School building are still under study in Rochester. It was learned today, and it is not expected that bids will be sought for another month.

DETAILED PLANS for the building will not be available for announcement until the study is completed.

It is proposed to construct a 400-pupil school with room for expansion. It will be a one-story structure of eight rooms, a principal's office, nurses' room, and all-purpose room.

The present school building is to be converted into a church.
