Clyde Parish Slates Plans For Renovation

Clyde — Auxiliary Bishop Lawrence E. Casey will be the featured speaker at the General Committee Kickoff Dinner to be held in St. John's Parish Hall, Clyde on Saturday, June 18 beginning at 6:30 p.m. The dinner is sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America, Court No. 524, and will be assisted by the ladies of the parish.

The campaign, St. John's Parish financial aid appeal, is being conducted to raise funds to renovate various church properties presently in need of repair, according to the Rev. Paul J. Cuddy, pastor.

THE RENOVATION PLANS include pointing of the church and school, construction of a new assembly, enlargement of the present parking and recreational areas, a new exit to the parking lot, plumbing in the church, a new school drainage system, and insulation and refurnishing of the present convent. Also included in the building plans will be the construction of a new office space, reception room, and convent room in the present rectory.

The enlightenment program of the appeal, which has been going on for the past five weeks, has been completed with an over-enthusiasm of more than 50 per cent of the goal. This brightly worded card from Father Cuddy, who termed it a sign of encouragement for the success of the campaign.

"I am very pleased and happy at the fine response of our members to our appeal for volunteer workers," stated the pastor. "I wish to extend my congratulations and hearty thanks for the splendid work that has been accomplished. I hope and pray that this spirit of unity will prevail among all the parishioners when they are asked to contribute to this most worthy cause."

THE GENERAL SOLICITATION will take place on Sunday, June 19, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. All parishioners are asked to contribute over a three year period by means of a contribution card. Payments may be made weekly, monthly, or as desired. Special envelopes will be mailed to every one who makes a pledge.
