Roses

By SUZANNE WIGG

Everything's coming up roses over by Polly Bergen; "Small World" by Johnny Mathis and "Together Wherever We Go" by the Four Lads are some of the greats also contained on this platter.

From dance bands to movie scoring to popular songs to Broadway musicals to producer has been the career of Julie Styne. Two of the composers' smash Broadway musicals are featured in the album, "Bells Are Ringing" and "Gypsy."

So, opening up with "Everything's Coming Up Roses" one of the brightest new tunes of the greatest Broadway era, the Kirby Stone Four, the album progresses with one hit after another each sung by the artist who made it a big seller, record-wise.

"Diamonds Are A Girl's Best Friend" is sung by Carol Burnett, "Three Coins In The Foun'tain" by Doris Day; "A Ride On The Rainbow" by Johnny Mathis; "Just In Time" by Tony Bennett; "The Party" by Ray Martin.

Another rose album to appear this week is a sort of mix in the album title. It is called "Life Is Just A Bed Of Nails" with Kathie Lee doing the vocals and Ray Martin taking care of the instrumental part of things, the album is a gentle mix of the fast-moving hectic world we live in.

Kate Lee, an established folk singer, uses her vocal art in combining the style of folk singer with the bite of the street in the twelve goofy songs which were written especially for the album. Some of the titles of these songs can give an idea of what it's all about.

whole new generation is whole still willing to meet such films on their own primitive level can be seen by ADULTS AND ADOLESCENTS at the Palace Theatre under the sweet-sounding name of "HANNIBAL." The movie with Victor Mature and Rita Gam off to an interesting start in scenes illustrating the difficult and costly crossing of the snowy Alps ("I'm changing my vacation"), but slows down to an elephant's pace in romantic pageant at the heart of the picture. For 103 minutes you won't be spellbound but it's at least a time - killer.

Two runaways, the boy Huck and the slave Jim, make their way down river on a raft. Huck gets away from his brutal father Jim is soon freed from the free state of Illinois. Whether on land or water, the boy's ready imagination keeps them one jump ahead of their pursuers and their captors.

Their adventure-filled escape is lively with a picturesque exaggerated lot of people, varying in helpfulness from the King. The Paramount Theatre drew and the Duke, rascally con men a blank this week after a wonderful performance by the Optimists of Toronto. Canadian Junior Corp Champions, The Holly Hawks, state high school marching band champions, will also perform.

ELMIRA — 218 B.C. is the year to remember as "HANNIBAL" rides into the Colonial Theatre over the weekend for ADULTS and ADOLESCENTS. Kindly refer to the above, honorable reader. Watch out for next Wednesday when "The Rat Race" makes its "B" showing at the same theatre. "THE MOUNTAIN ROAD" is still being driven by ADULTS and ADOLESCENTS for some good action and adventure.

HORNELL — "THE BRIDGES OF TOKO-RI" are built again at the Majestic Theatre FOR ADULTS and ADOLESCENTS. It's war and a lot of action. A big musical is coming your way on Wednesday in the All category under the name of
