

Scholarships, Awards Given To Graduates

Awards and scholarships were bestowed on graduates of Catholic high schools in the Rochester Diocese at 1960 commencement ceremonies.

Honors were as follows:

ST. AGNES HIGH SCHOOL

Highest Average in Regents, Katherine Noll; Christian Doctrine, Susan Callaghan; English, Kathleen LaVerne; Latin, Patricia Schloski; French, Jacqueline Vallot; German, Lorraine Pilecki; Fourth Degree K. of G. American History, Mary Rich; Mathematics, Susan Fischer; Spanish, Ann Marie Rappi; Home-Making, Elizabeth Tormotto; Sodality Key, Marilyn Genschler; Palatine, Kathleen McCorry; Student Council leadership, Joyce Smith; National Scholastic Press Association Star Award, Barbara Coddington; Alice Marie Conway; Perfect Attendance, Marie Wolpert; Diane Granath.

Scholarships were awarded to:

Alice Marie Conway, Eastman School of Music; Mary Rich, Morris Brown, New York State Nursing; Jacqueline Vallot, Ralph Bunche Scholarship; Mary Alice Launmeyer, Eastman Dental Dispensary.

New York State Regents:

Susan Callaghan, Barbara Coddington, Delores Dittus, Susan Fischer, Mary Josephine Worthman, Anna Elizabeth Woods.

Nazareth College:

Alice Marie Conway, Barbara Coddington, Grace Dalton, Anne Eckl, Susan Fischer, Maureen Mooney, Katherine Noll, Elaine Stragusa, Anna Elizabeth Woods.

Nazareth Academy:

Reverend Mother Agnes Award, Apologies, Sharon Esse; Highest Average and Mathematics, Virginia Welch; Palatine, Linda Belmont; Sister M. Florentine Progress in English, Kathryn Baker; Fourth Degree K. of G. American History, Okanasa Kyrbak; English, Lona Science; Carol Oeniski; German, Susanna Revest; Italian, Michele DiGaetano; French, Judith Severance; Latin, Annette DiSchino; Home-Making, Marilyn Spiti; Betty Crocker Home-Making, Diane Conheady; Office Practice, Mary Jean Stewart; Secretarial Practice and Spanish, Marie Canfield; PTA Sister M. Pauline School Spirit and Loyalty, Mary Patricia Kame; Journalists Key Award, Catherine Schall; Apostle of the Word, Mary Anne Ryan, Margaret Toomey; Honorable Mention, Donna Ellwanger, Patricia Beebler, Wilma Beier.

Perfect Attendance:

Chlori Arioli, Margaret Boyd, Marie Canfora, Barbara DeRyche, Evelyn Ernie, Rosemary Foot, Diane Howie, Judith Hutchins, Barbara O'Connor, Angelica Filato, Janet Janewin, Joyce Rosland, Barbara Sampson, Patricia Sampson.

Music diplomas:

Sheila Crilly, Mary Ann Magni, Barbara St. John.

Scholarships were awarded to:

Catherine Schwalb, John F. Wegman Foundation Inc. Scholarship in Nazareth College; Diane Conheady, D'Youville College; Martha Gosling, Assumption University; Ann Marie D'Angelo, Marywood College; Patricia DiBiase, Rochester Institute of Technology; Barbara Sifola, Rochester Business Institute; Rita Wiley, Notre Bernardi, St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing; Elizabeth Shank, Rochester General Hospital School of Nursing; Suzanne Scholl, American Legion County Auxiliary Scholarship.

New York State Regents:

Christine Dawley, Patricia Donahue, Carolee Gerstner, Sandra Huber, Joanne Liberatore, Kathleen Murphy, Barbara Skromnik, Marianne Taylor, Mary Linda Zeller.

Nazareth College:

Patricia Beebler, Joyce Condestable, Sheila Crilly, Annette DiSchino, Patricia Donahue, Martha Gosling, Sandra Huber, Mary Patricia Kame, Patricia Kovanick, Mary Ann Magni, Kathleen Murphy, Marianne Taylor, Virginia Welch, Mary Linda Zeller.

(Continued on page 11)

New Rector At McQuaid Jesuit, Fr. Barnett Ends 6 Year Term

The Rev. Robert J. Boyle, S.J., a member of the faculty at McQuaid Jesuit High School in Rochester since 1954, has been appointed rector of the school by the Very Rev. John B. Janssens, S.J., Superior General of the Society of Jesus. He will be succeeded by Father Barnett, S.J., rector at McQuaid since 1954.

From 1944 until 1947 Father Boyle was instructor of Latin Program and English at St. Peter's Preparatory, Jersey City, N.J. Thereafter he returned to Woodstock College for theological studies. On June 18, 1950, he was ordained to the priesthood at Woodstock College. After a further year of study, Father Boyle was assigned to the Jesuit Tenantship at Annesville for a final year of spiritual preparation for his priestly ministry.

Superior of Xavier College, Silver Spring, Maryland, of Andrew - on - Hudson, Poughkeepsie, N.Y.; and Raymond M. Keppie, N.Y., in 1952, as Assistant to the Master of Novices, lay editor of the Marjonnell from 1953 to 1954. He was an instructor in Latin and English at St. Mary's Hospital Preparatory School, pharmacologist at St. Mary's Hospital, Brooklyn, N.Y., before his assignment to McQuaid, where he has been instructor in English, Religion and Reading, Chairman of the General Course and Moderator of the Athletic Program.

His present appointment as rector. Father Boyle has also been moderator of the Junior Student Council, the Student Council, the Junior Red Cross, Assistant Student Counselor, and chairman of the English Department at the school.

Father Boyle is the brother of Brother Cincinatus, C.F.X., Superior of Xavier College, Silver Spring, Maryland, of Andrew - on - Hudson, Poughkeepsie, N.Y.; and Raymond M. Keppie, N.Y., in 1952, as Assistant to the Master of Novices, lay editor of the Marjonnell from 1953 to 1954. He was an instructor in Latin and English at St. Mary's Hospital Preparatory School, pharmacologist at St. Mary's Hospital, Brooklyn, N.Y., before his assignment to McQuaid, where he has been instructor in English, Religion and Reading, Chairman of the General Course and Moderator of the Athletic Program.

He was assigned to St. William F. Boyle, a resident of Annesville for a final year of spiritual preparation for his priestly ministry.

Superior of Xavier College, Silver Spring, Maryland, of Andrew - on - Hudson, Poughkeepsie, N.Y.; and Raymond M. Keppie, N.Y., in 1952, as Assistant to the Master of Novices, lay editor of the Marjonnell from 1953 to 1954. He was an instructor in Latin and English at St. Mary's Hospital Preparatory School, pharmacologist at St. Mary's Hospital, Brooklyn, N.Y., before his assignment to McQuaid, where he has been instructor in English, Religion and Reading, Chairman of the General Course and Moderator of the Athletic Program.

FATHER BOYLE

succeeds the Rev. James R. Barnett, S.J., rector at McQuaid since 1954.

Father Barnett came to Rochester in 1953 to begin work for the new Catholic high school for boys. The following year he became McQuaid's first rector.

On the eve of his departure from Rochester last week, Father Barnett lauded the Catholic people of this area who helped make the six-year-old Jesuit high school a reality. He referred to them as "usually generous in every way."

Although an infant Foundation, McQuaid already has made its mark in the community. Its importance to the educational development of the Rochester Diocese is a proven fact from results achieved, Father Barnett stated.

Father Boyle was born July 8, 1920, in Utica, N.Y. The son of William F. and Anna Mack Boyle, he attended St. Francis de Sales Grammar School and High School in Utica before entering the Society of Jesus at St. Andrew-on-Hudson, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., in 1937.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

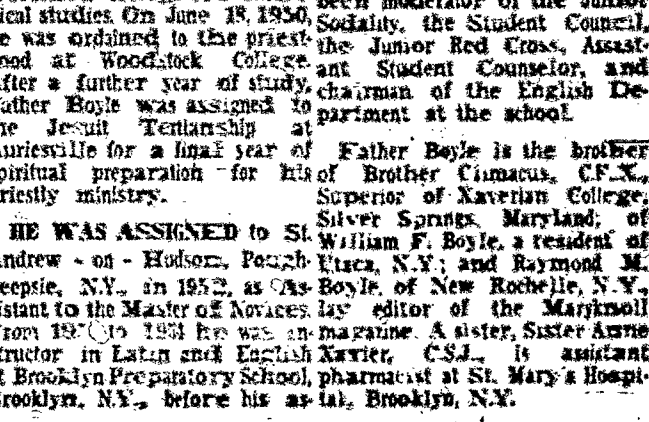

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

FATHER BARNETT

succeeds the Rev. Robert J. Boyle, S.J., rector at McQuaid since 1954.

Father Barnett came to Rochester in 1953 to begin work for the new Catholic high school for boys. The following year he became McQuaid's first rector.

On the eve of his departure from Rochester last week, Father Barnett lauded the Catholic people of this area who helped make the six-year-old Jesuit high school a reality. He referred to them as "usually generous in every way."

Although an infant Foundation, McQuaid already has made its mark in the community. Its importance to the educational development of the Rochester Diocese is a proven fact from results achieved, Father Barnett stated.

Father Barnett was born July 8, 1920, in Utica, N.Y. The son of William F. and Anna Mack Barnett, he attended St. Francis de Sales Grammar School and High School in Utica before entering the Society of Jesus at St. Andrew-on-Hudson, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., in 1937.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

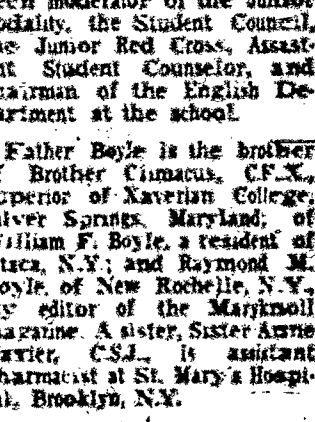

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

VICTOR A. DESIMON

succeeds the Rev. Robert J. Boyle, S.J., rector at McQuaid since 1954.

Father Barnett came to Rochester in 1953 to begin work for the new Catholic high school for boys. The following year he became McQuaid's first rector.

On the eve of his departure from Rochester last week, Father Barnett lauded the Catholic people of this area who helped make the six-year-old Jesuit high school a reality. He referred to them as "usually generous in every way."

Although an infant Foundation, McQuaid already has made its mark in the community. Its importance to the educational development of the Rochester Diocese is a proven fact from results achieved, Father Barnett stated.

Father Barnett was born July 8, 1920, in Utica, N.Y. The son of William F. and Anna Mack Barnett, he attended St. Francis de Sales Grammar School and High School in Utica before entering the Society of Jesus at St. Andrew-on-Hudson, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., in 1937.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

VICTOR A. DESIMON

succeeds the Rev. Robert J. Boyle, S.J., rector at McQuaid since 1954.

Father Barnett came to Rochester in 1953 to begin work for the new Catholic high school for boys. The following year he became McQuaid's first rector.

On the eve of his departure from Rochester last week, Father Barnett lauded the Catholic people of this area who helped make the six-year-old Jesuit high school a reality. He referred to them as "usually generous in every way."

Although an infant Foundation, McQuaid already has made its mark in the community. Its importance to the educational development of the Rochester Diocese is a proven fact from results achieved, Father Barnett stated.

Father Barnett was born July 8, 1920, in Utica, N.Y. The son of William F. and Anna Mack Barnett, he attended St. Francis de Sales Grammar School and High School in Utica before entering the Society of Jesus at St. Andrew-on-Hudson, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., in 1937.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree and his Licentiate in Theology.

He pursued the course in philosophy at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Maryland, where in 1943 he received his A.B. from Georgetown University. In 1944 he obtained his M.A. degree