Elmira AOH Hears Local Sports Writer

Jack Wheeland, senior member of the "Elmira Advertiser" sports staff, was the main speaker of the Second Annual All-Sports Banquet held recently at Hogan's Restaurant.

The banquet, attended by members of the Mgr. John J. Lee Division, Assistant Order of Hibernians, paid tribute to members of the division who excelled in various AOH activities during the past year.

Wheeland, a member of the division, lauded the Chemung County division for its comradship, sportsmanship and interest in promoting sports and fellowship among its members.

He also pointed up the value of comradship and sportsmanship to the American way of life.

The championship team of the Hibernian Bowling League was named the winner of the Tom O'Connor Plaque. Members of the winning team are Capt. Vin Trainor, Tom Coggins, Horace Rhilins and Jerry Hogan. Trophies were presented to these bowlers.

BILL HULBERT of Tawas was a trophy winner with the League's best season average.

Cork's Joe Dinaher was named for the top two individual performances as the result of the highest single game and 3-games total with handicap. He also received the ABG belt award for the most improved average over last year's figures.

Following the awards, the election of 1960-61 bowling 1 & 2 u e officers was held. Trainor was elected president; Jim Sullivan, vice president; and Ray Hourihan, secretary-treasurer.

John Allen, co-chairman of the event, made the presentation.

Following the awards, the election of 1960-61 bowling 1 & 2 u e officers was held. Trainor was elected president; Jim Sullivan, vice president; and Ray Hourihan, secretary-treasurer.

Joe improved his average nearly 25 points.

Pete Glanton of Meath and Jim Sullivan Cork also received trophies for outstanding individual games.

Bill Crowley, league vice president, made the bowling presentations.

Hulbert was awarded a trophy as the outstanding golfer in the AOH Golf Tournament held last September. Bill captured both divisions of the tourney, both the net and gross low sections.

The presentation was made by Hogan who served as toastmaster.

Hulbert was also named the leading Hibernian sportsman of the year for his showing in both golf and bowling.

TROPHY AWARDS for the year-long 1959 AOH Euchre Tournament went to the champion, Bob Sullivan and Bob Paine, who repeated his 1958 runner-up showing. Don Seaman was the 1958 champion.

John Allen, co-chairman of the event, made the presentation.
