

500 Hibernians Attend State Conclave In Elmira

The 70th Biennial New York State Convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and Ladies' Auxiliary closed Saturday night, June 25 at Elmira with the convention banquet and installation of state officers.

Some 500 delegates and guests attended the Mark Twain Hotel banquet and view the installation, ending the three-day confab of the Catholic, Irish fraternal organization.

The main speaker at the banquet was the Rev. Eugene B. Gallagher, S.J., chairman of the theology department of the University of Stranton.

FATHER GALLAGHER lauded the glorious history of Ireland, but reminded the group that the "greatest glory of Ireland lies in its future," citing the rapid growth of industries there since the nation gained its independence from Great Britain.

In clearing up a "misunderstanding" on the stand taken by Ireland in calling for a vote on Red China's admittance to the United Nations, he told of conversations with high Irish officials.

These officials stressed that, while the Irish delegation called for a vote on the question, it was to bring the question into the open and thus put more light on the subject.

He emphasized that the Irish delegation fully intended to vote against a admittance of Red China, Father Gallagher explained further that the country's stand is a fight for "Independence."

Also addressing the group were John R. Kane, a national director from New York City; Mary Xavier of Massachusetts, the national president of the ladies' auxiliary; Kathleen Smith of Long Island, the national vice-president; Marie A. English of Schenectady, the state president.

Introduced at the speakers' table were: Michael Lennon of Schenectady, outgoing state vice president and incoming state president; Jane C. Higgins, president of the Chemung County ladies' auxiliary and hostess to the women during the convention; Raymond B. Hourihan, president of the local.

THE REV. JOHN S. HAYES, pastor of St. Patrick's Church and a past-chaplain of the Chemung County group, addressed the group, praising the group and inviting the members back.

Father Hayes praised the group for taking time out from a busy convention schedule to approach the Communism rail.

The Hibernian National Secretary, John F. Geoghan of Brooklyn, also addressed the group. He urged an increased patriotic effort on the part of American citizens.

At an early session Saturday, June 25, the group was held with the Rev. John P. O'Brien celebrant.

The preceding Thursday and Friday of the week will be days of prayer for world peace.

The Seneca Falls C.D.A. No. 824, an affiliate group, is sponsoring the Deaneary meeting, Miss Mary E. Barbi is the Grand Regent.

Mrs. Julian Humiston of Starkey, Deaneary president, will preside. Miss Theresa McGrain will be the chairman.

The Rev. John B. Klein will be the guest speaker at the luncheon. Rev. James O'Connell of Waterloo, moderator, will address the group.

A program will be presented by Mrs. Geraldine Oakes, Mrs. John Fraser and Mrs. Thomas Bevin.

An invitation has been extended to all the women of the Deaneary and of St. Patrick's Parish.

Alumni Weekend
Mrs. Frank Cullinan and her daughter, Mrs. Albert Burke of Avon, Mrs. Thomas Byrne, Miss Marcella Flynn and Miss Margaret King of Rochester assisted.

Eighty-five guests attended the event from New York, Buffalo, Seneca Falls, and Waterloo.

THE ELMIRA convention, which started Wednesday night, June 22 with a Welcome Party, was under the direction of the general chairman, Mathias F. Fennell.

He earned the credit of Hibernians and the people of Elmira for developing one of the outstanding conventions to date.

About 700 people were on hand at various times during the three days.

Donald J. Seaman and Hourihan represented the Elmira division as delegates. Mrs. Higgins was the delegate from the Elmira ladies' auxiliary.
