Devotional Spots In Northeast

New Geneva Shrine Invites Visitors

One of newest and more beautiful devotional spots in the Rochester area is the elaborate Shrines of the Finger Lakes located at Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary, Lockland Rd., Route 14, the outskirts of Geneva.

Erected under the direction of the Capuchin Fathers who staff the seminary, the many shrines have been placed on the spacious grounds commanding a beautiful view of Seneca Lake.

New Habits Grace Campus At Nazareth

Nazareth College of Rochester is offering this summer in the graduate and undergraduate divisions, and in the elementary teacher education division.

Many of the Sisters are attired in the new or modified habit of their order. In compliance with the directive of Pope John, changes have been made in the traditional habit to meet modern ideas.

The Sisters students are registered from all sections of New York State, from Buffalo to Long Island, as well as from the states of Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, North Carolina, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, and Maryland.

IN ADDITION to the regular summer school courses, some of the Sisters are taking the special work which Nazareth College is offering.

Ten Years To A Century

Monsignor Thomas Connors, pastor of Blessed Sacrament Church, marked his 80th birthday Tuesday. Auxiliary Bishop Lawrence B. Casey brought the veteran pastor greetings for the occasion.

Deadline Advanced

During the summer months the Courier Journal will be delivered to your home on Thursdays instead of Fridays.

Deadline for Rochester area is Monday, 5 p.m., and from other areas of the Diocese Tuesday noon.
