Miss Burgess Last Rites Held
Funeral Mass for Jacqueline A. Burgess, a grammar school teacher in Brighton District 1 for about eight years, was offered in Sacred Heart Cathedral on Friday, July 8.

Miss Burgess, whose home was at 214 Merrill St., died July 4, 1960.

Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rev. L. Emmett Davis, vicar of the deceased, assisted by the Rev. William E. Davis, S.S.C.C., vicar of the deceased, as deacon and the Rev. Conrad J. Sundholm as subdeacon.

AUXILIARY BISHOP Lawrence E. Casey gave the final absolution.

Also in the sanctuary were the Rev. Donald E. Lux, the Rev. Frederick Bush, the Rev. Nicholas Gomez, S.S.C.C., and the Rev. James Marvin.

A native Rochesterian, Miss Burgess was graduated from Nazareth College and received an M.A. from Brockport State Teachers College. She was a member of Nazareth College Alumnae Assn., New York State Teachers Assn., and the Young Republicans Club. She worked for Catholic charities in New York City before coming to the Brighton school.

Miss Burgess leaves her mother, Mrs. Ann Burgess, two brothers, Harley I. and Robert E. Burgess, two nieces and two nephews, several uncles, and aunts.

Rev. L. Emmett Davis and Rev. William Davis gave the blessing at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

'Roberts' Partners Form New Service

Two pipe organ specialists whose first names are Robert are operating the newly formed Roberts Organ Services with a P.O. Box 192 address in Rochester. Both are armed forces veterans.

They are Robert B. Patterson and Robert M. Hickey.

Hickey was instrumental in rebuilding the organ at Corpus Christi Church and more recently the organ at Sacred Heart Cathedral. An active member of St. Rita's Church, West Webster, he is vice president of the Holy Name Society and a choir member. After five years learning the pipe organ trade he has been employed for the past three years as head foreman and tuner.

Patterson after two years learning the basics of pipe organ repair, has spent the past year as sales engineer for both repair work and for installation of new and rebuilt instruments.

Patterson is being reached at BEverly 5-2121 and Hickey at WEbster 513-2.

They kept pushing the little man toward the rear of the bus until finally someone pushed him out the rear exit. He ran to the front door and tried to get on but someone yanked it shut but the bus was too crowded.

Turkey Dinner Mapped At Livonia Center
Livonia Center — St. Michael's Annual Turkey Dinner will be held on Saturday, August 13, according to Father J. Joseph O'Connell, pastor.

The women of St. Mary's Honoree and St. Michael's held a meeting last week and made preliminary plans for the dinner which will be sponsored by the two churches.

The menu, which will include turkey and all the trimmings, plus apple pie, will be the same as in past years. Arrangements will be made to feed 1200 guests, rain or shine.

For the most part parishioners know their jobs from year to year, but in the case of new people, volunteers will be most welcome. Mrs. Thomas Genthner is general chairman of the dinner and Mrs. Leo Benoit of Honoree and Mrs. Chester Haak of Livonia will be in charge of the dining room.

The men of the parish held a meeting Monday evening and arranged for the Festival program. There will be fun and games to be enjoyed by all before and after the dinner.

The price of the dinner tickets will be the same this year, $1.75 for adults and $1 for children and serving will start at 4:30 p.m.
