

WHAT'S NEW In The Parishes

ST. JOSEPH, Livonia. This August 4 at 8 p.m. President Genevieve Turner will preside. Summer Festival and Smorgasbord will be held at St. Margaret's Chapel grounds, McPherson's Point, Conesus Lake. This event is held each year for the benefit of St. Joseph's Church, Livonia. The program attracts area residents as well as many from Rochester. Paul DeMartini and John Morrissey are co-chairmen. Fred G. Ryan, an outstanding caterer from Buffalo who has been a summer resident on Conesus Lake for several years, will again contribute his "know how" to the women of the parish to produce the smorgasbord. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walpole under Ryan's supervision are handling the smorgasbord arrangements. Genevieve Turner and Margaret Kemp are co-chairmen of the dining room committee. Ticket distribution is being handled by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rossetti and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McDonald. Attractive booths are planned on the grounds. Father Roy Hagerly invited all to the festival and smorgasbord.

ST. MARY, Canandaigua. A committee of Holy Name men are handling tickets for the Chicago Bar-B-Q to be held Saturday, July 30, at Roseland Park, Pavilion No. 3. Serving to be from 4 to 7 p.m. William Griendl is general chairman; Joseph Coppola, co-chairman; Robert Abraham in charge of tickets and Frank DeKoss, publicity. Public is invited.

ST. JEROME, East Rochester. Ladies Catholic Benevolent Association branch will conduct a meeting in the church hall, August 4 at 8 p.m.

John C. Walz Services Held

John C. Walz, 80, died in his home at 444 Alphonse St., Sunday, July 17, 1960. Funeral services were held at the Assiut: M. Maier Funeral Home, followed by Solemn Requiem Mass in Holy Redeemer Church on Wednesday, July 20. Rev. Msgr. Joseph E. Vogt was celebrant, assisted by Rev. Bernard V. Kuchman, deacon, and Rev. John F. Gormley, sub-deacon. Very Rev. Leslie G. Whalen and Reverend Fathers Thomas Erdle and Francis Kiehammer were present in the sanctuary.

Mr. Walz, who retired about eight years ago from the Rochester Transit Corp., where he was employed as an upholsterer, was a charter member of the Holy Redeemer Athletic Assn. He also belonged to the Holy Name Society; Legion of Mary; and Twenty-second Ward Republican Club.

He is survived by one son, Gerald; five daughters, Mrs. Veronica Heisel, Mrs. John (Margaret) Kennelly, Mrs. Leo (Dorothy) Heisel, Mrs. Urban (Sylvia) Deisenroth, and Mrs. Thomas (Laurina) O'Brien; ten grandchildren; twenty great-grandchildren.

Interment was made in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, where Rev. John Gormley gave the final blessing at the grave.

Salvatore Guzzetta Attends Training Meet

Salvatore J. Guzzetta, local representative of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, has returned from New York where he participated in a special advanced training course relating to estate planning and business life insurance underwriting.

SALVATORE GUZZETTA

Guzzetta, who lives at 100 Pomeroy St., recently was appointed to the position of Metropolitan Insurance Consultant, in which capacity he will continue his insurance sales and service activities from the Metropolitan's Riverview office at 458 E. Main St. The office is under the direction of Manager Louis Nardella.

R. RICHARD BRICKLER

Seminarian Leads Team

R. Richard Brickler, student at St. Bernard Seminary, will lead his softball team into the city tournament in the Bay View Major League this week. Brickler is the leading center-fielder for Tobin's First First Club sponsored by Fred Tobin. Tobin's team is playing its first year in the league and has been named the "Rookie Team of the Year." The team is peed as a fast team and is made up of many Catholic college graduates. The team members have never played together before this year.

VFW Here Sponsors Youth Softball

The Monroe County Veterans of Foreign Wars is sponsoring a group of 30 youth softball teams in cooperation with the Division of Recreation of the Rochester Parks Department, according to the VFW County Commander Vincent J. DiRaimo. Youth Chairman for the VFW softball program is Joseph Yacone.

The Boy Scout program is an aid to the church, home, and school while it builds young men. Ask the Scout leader in your neighborhood about Scout's character building program.

Youth Picnic Set By Waterloo Group

Waterloo — St. Mary's Youth Picnic will be held Aug. 7 at Taughannock Falls State Park. High school students, those who are going into high school in September and those who were just graduated are invited to attend.

Games and sports are planned for the program. Transportation will be furnished for all who do not have it. There will be a charge of 75 cents.

One out of 2-burn in Rochester and Monroe County is a member of the Boy Scouts of America. The Scout program is available to all boys 8 thru 18.
