Laymen's Retreats Set in Diocese

Retreats for laymen of the Diocese of Rochester scheduled in August at Notre Dame Retreat House, 244 Alexander St., Rochester follow:

Insurance Proposed For School Tuition

Boston — (RNS) — Gov. Foster Furcolo of Massachusetts made known details of a proposed educational insurance plan to provide funds for tuition and other expenses of students in private and public colleges throughout the country.

Rites Honor Nazi Victims

Berlin — (RNS) — Special Protestant and Catholic memorial services were held in various West German centers and in West Berlin to mark the anniversary of the abortive plot against Hitler of July 20, 1944.

Catholic youth staged a rally at the Berlin Ploetzensee prison, where participants in the plot, including several priests, were executed. They offered prayers for the freedom of all oppressed peoples and for world peace.

They charged that a new Mass service in the Soviet Zone is now attempting forcibly to separate Catholics from the Church and subject them to Communism.

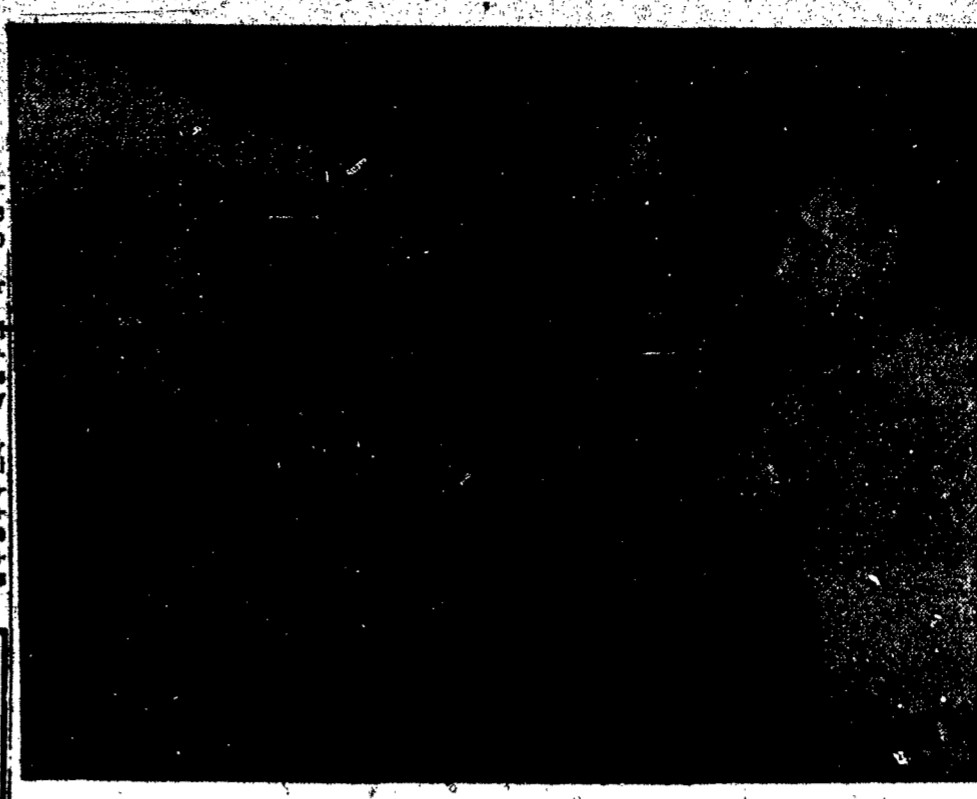

More than 70 residents of Kasari Mura on Amami Island have been baptized by Bishop Joseph Satowaki of Kagoshima. Meanwhile 40 other villagers are taking instruction in Catholicism.

The mass baptism was the first to take place in recent years on the island, which lies between southern Japan and Okinawa.

The agency must consider first the future of the child. It is his life and his future that must be assured. Great care is needed in placing a child with the father and mother than can fill his needs spiritually and physically. A mistake at the time of placement can result in tragedy and heartache greater than the needs that brought the adoptive parents and child together.

THE PARENTS ARE first interviewed by the adoptive parent agency. Mrs. John J. Daly, whose purpose is to choose parents acceptable to the agency standards. A few of the they are non-residents. Prior to things she will base her evaluation on whether or not was $10 and placement fee was $100.

Plan Boat Party

Auburn Council, Knights of Columbus will hold a steak and boat party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank L. DeFurio, Owasco Lake on Saturday, July 30.

Large Contributor
