Mother Gannon New Superior At Cenacle

The Religious of the Cenacle who provide retreats for women at the Cenacle Retreat House on East Avenue, welcomed last week their new Superior in the person of Mother Gannon.

Reverend Mother Gannon received the assignment while stationed in the Florida Cenacle at Manalapan, where she was a pioneer member of the Community when the house was opened last November.

A NATIVE OF Brooklyn, the new superior spent twenty-five years of her religious life in the American Novitiate House of the congregation, located in Lake Ronkonkoma, Long Island.

Reverend Mother Connolly, whom Mother Gannon replaces, was Superior of the Rochester Cenacle for six years. She now holds that office in the Cenacle at Middletown, Connecticut.

It was during her term in Rochester that a large chapel and wing were constructed to provide more convenient facilities for the retreatants.

Three new moderators of the Rochester Diocesan Council of Catholic Nurses were named this week:

Caroling Chapter—Rev. William Thomas, who replaces Rev. James F. Slattery.

Ilseba Chapter—Rev. Nell Goodman, who replaces Father Thomas.

Auburn Chapter—Rev. Gerald Connor, who replaces Rev. Paul R. Schnacky.

Each Sister—individually pronounced her vows at the Communion time of the Mass.

Following the Mass, the white veils worn by the novices during their two and a half years of training were exchanged for the black veils of the professed Sisters. Each finally professed Sister received a ring on her third finger, symbolic of her espousal to Christ.

The novices who made their temporary profession of vows of three years will have a further three years of training before pronouncing their final vows. These included the following Sisters:

St. Mary Fadrak, daughter of Mr. James T. Holahan and the late Mrs. Malachi Cain of St. Patrick's Parish, Elmira.

St. Mary Luke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Elman of St. Ann's Parish, Rochester.

St. Mary Bellarmine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stier of St. Andrew's Parish, Rochester.

St. Mary Amata, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen F. James of St. John the Evangelist Parish, Rochester.

St. Mary Nora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Shibley of St. Ann's Parish, Hornell.

St. Mary Bernadette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mer-

St. Mary Catherine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malachi Cain of St. Patrick's Parish, Elmira.

St. Mary Josephine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Lawson of St. John the Evangelist Parish, Greece.

St. Mary Casilda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Speltz of St. Ann's Parish, East Henrieville.

St. Mary Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bort of St. Margaret Mary's Parish, Rochester.

Corning KC Reports New Slate, Directors

Corning—Results of recent election of officers and trustees of the local Knights of Columbus Permanent Home Association, and the appointment of four men to the Board of Directors were announced at a recent meeting of Corning KC Council in the local council home.

Officers are: Joseph McIntyre, president; Charles Houston, vice president; Dudley McLaughlin, treasurer; and T. V. Hanly, secretary.

Those appointed trustees are: Joseph Dunbeck and William Babcock. The job of the trustees is to report on the financial condition of the board. Appointed alternate trustee was Mr. Houston.

NEW MEMBERS named to the Board of Directors were: George Horne, Mr. Dunbeck, Al DuVal, and Edward Griffin.

The Board also reported that extensive renovation of the exterior and interior of the Council home is underway in preparation for fall activity, and that several items of recreational equipment have been installed.

Bernard Miller, executive director of the six-point program, which is the basis for the year's coming activities of the K of C, announced a meeting for Thursday night at 7 o'clock of all individual program chairmen and officers.

The second annual picnic for the men of St. John the Baptist Church, Elmira, will be held on Sunday afternoon at the Richard Precht farm from 2 to 7 p.m.

Mr. Charles Rummel is general chairman and is being assisted by committee chairmen Edward Kusper, Joseph C. Schieren and Richard Rutzke.

A baseball game between the married and single men will be a feature of the afternoon program.

Plans are being made by the societies of St. Anthony's Church, Elmira, to hold a parish bazaar on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 17 and 18. A children's afternoon bazaar is planned for Sept. 17 from 2 to 5 p.m. The evening bazaar will be held from 7 to 11 p.m. both nights.

MRS. KEVIN will be assisted by the Mesdames Edward Grubbs, Keith Horton, Charles Cummings, Joseph DeLors, Michael DeSocio, William Kelly, Edward Lagonegro, James Powell, Joseph Fitzpatrick, Thomas Sullivan, Andrew Colucci, Joseph Flanagan.

Holy Name Plans Outing

The annual outing of the Holy Name Society of St. Mary Church, Elmira, will be held at Murhaven, Pine City, Sunday, Aug. 21, from 1 to 3 p.m.

General chairman is Edward Sullivan and the co-chairmen are Richard Milano and Daniel J. Kelly. Members assisting are: food committee, Frank Limoncelli, Patrick Peretti, Raymond J. Callahan, Joseph Capozzi and Leonard Gessi; gate committee, John Elliott, Joseph E. Rempe, Vincent S. Maney and Michael F. Limoncelli; publicity, George F. Generas and George Generas, Jr.

The public is invited. Tickets can be obtained from the newsstand at St. Mary's Church and at the outing.

Furniture for the school is delivered and is expected to be delivered also within a week. Father Brennan explained that it was not considered desirable to have it delivered before it could be installed.

No date for formal acceptance of the building by the parish has been set. Although Manning reported that it is expected to take place within the next week or 10 days, the Rev. Thomas F. Brennan, parish pastor explains, will depend upon the recommendation of the architect, Considine & Haskell of Elmira.

THE BUILDING furnishes an eight-room L-shaped wing with quarters for 120 additional pupils. It has been built on the site of the school's oldest building, which was razed to make room for the new wing.

The first phase of the project, the remodeling of the north building of the school, was completed last summer.
