

Couple Wed In Waterloo

Waterloo — Miss Janice Ann Petro, daughter of Mrs. Mary Petro and the late Anthony Petro of Huff St. became the bride of Dominick Francis Antenucci, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Antenucci, Geneva on Saturday, Aug. 6 in St. Mary Church.

The pastor, Rev. James P. O'Connell performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

Miss Donna Petro, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Suzanne Cox, Northeast, Pa.; Miss Adela Harney, Kings Park, L.I.; Miss Teresa O'Neill, Geneva and Mrs. Thos. P. Bay, Jr. of Geneva. The junior bridesmaid was Miss Lela Petro, sister of the bride.

The best man was Francis Polio of Geneva. The usher was Thomas Grod, Waterloo. Charles Sabatine, Waterloo, a cousin of the bride; Dominick Quartaro, Geneva, and Fred Meisner of Long Island.

Senior ushers were Paul Colalia, Geneva, cousin of the bride, and Raymond Canina, Waterloo, cousin of the bride.

A QUEST FOR SOULS

Motivated by the love of God, the heart of every boy and girl who enters a missionary or missionary. Dreams of making converts, of being happy missionary. Of reaching the whole world to return Christ's love—these are some of the thoughts in the minds of missionaries and novices. Along with their dreams goes knowledge of the part that finances must play in their noble aspirations. Every priest, brother, and sister in the community of the faith has a share in the debt they owe those who make possible their training and their ministry. The extension of God's kingdom on earth requires both the prayers and the financial help of all Catholics. In the Archdiocese of CHANGANACHERRY in INDIA another Mission Station has been opened at TEKUPARA. To erect a church and school in TEKUPARA will cost $4,000. Can you help?

RENEFACTORS OF THE CATHOLIC NEAR EAST WELFARE ASSOCIATION receive a share in the merits of all the prayers and works of Christians in the Near and Middle East. A REMISSION IN YOUR life is one way to help prayers for the release of your soul. Why not take care immediately of a REQUEST to the CATHOLIC NEAR EAST WELFARE ASSOCIATION?

CAN YOU SEND A DONATION TO HELP US OPERATE OUR TWO SCHOOLS FOR PALESTINIAN REFUGEE CHILDREN AT DAYE' AND HIR EL BASHA?

"JESUS went out into a mountain to pray, and He passed the whole night in prayer; and when day came, He called unto Him His disciples, and He chose TWELVE OF THEM, WHOM ALSO HE NAMED APOSTLES." Since the selection of His first Apostles, Our Lord has, for centuries, been choosing others from among His disciples to take their place. Among these chosen in our day are AUGUSTINE VATTATHIL and JOSEPH VATTATHIL who are now preparing for the priesthood in the seminary of St. Joseph's in Kerala, India. It will cost $200 to support each of them in the seminary for six years. Would you care to finance the education of one of them?

THROUGH THE HANDS OF OUR Divine Lord came one day to the Sea of Galilee where He called a peasant who was deaf and dumb. And His disciples wondered, saying, "He hath done all things well; He hath made both the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak." SISTER CHRISTINE and SISTER CONSTANCE, novices of the BAHILIAN BOARDERS SISTERS in LIBANON will spend their lives with TYNE and BIDON; here by their teaching, these children will hear the truths of our holy faith and will be taught to give the wonderful gift of speech in prayer to Him who once passed gloriously through their country. If you could pay for the education of one of these Sisters, the cost would be $300.

NEW SEMINARIANS AND NEW NOVICES Many American boys and girls are preparing, during these weeks, to enter a seminary or a novitiate. Perhaps you have a young relative, or a friend, or a neighbor, who will soon be leaving home to begin the training that will lead to the Priesthood, or the Brotherhood, or the Novitiate. These young people need the prayers of all of us. A suggestion for a "prayer-warrior" gift are these: MAKE OR WRITE FOR THEM INTENTIONS OR ENROLLMENT IN THE CATHOLIC NEAR EAST WELFARE ASSOCIATION (the fee for the annual enrollment of an individual is $1.00). We will send a Gift Card to let your seminary or novitiate know that your prayer goes with them.

Talk It Over

Bathing Suits

By ANNE CULKIN

Dear Miss Culklin: Please tell me what you think of girls who wear bathing suits all day at a lake and don't swim more than a half-hour during the entire day? We have a cottage here, with a swimming pool, and I have even been in college in the afternoon and have seen them dancing with boys. I'm not a prude, but to me it is positively shocking. Would you get something in your column about it because the kids here read it.

Cottage

Dear Cottage: They may read my answer, but I doubt that it will make any impression. Fortunately for your generation, there are many young women like you who are distinguished between that which is casual and that which is modest and whose dress is in keeping with their cognizance of the difference. Women who appreciate modesty of dress know that the place for a swim suit is in the water or on the beach between swims. To wear a bathing suit any other place is to wear it in the wrong place.

Dear Funny Walk:

The toes are not pointed outwards when we walk nor are the legs separated to give the impression that they don't like each other. When walking or standing, the knees should be no more than a half an inch apart. If you practice walking in a straight line with the toes pointing straight ahead, I feel you will rid yourself of the illic peculiarity.

Dear Lenner:

If I knew the reason for the breakup, it would be easier to advise you how to make up. Assuming that the misdeed was on your part, why not try applying that powerful string of words made up of the words "I am very sorry." When used sincerely, it has been known to heal the deepest wounds.

Dear Miss Culklin:

I'm confused. My mother has always taught me to address her friends "as Mrs. or Miss" even though she calls them by their first names. But I have a friend who is always making fun of me because I do. She says that older women like young people (I'm 18) to call them by their first names because it makes them feel younger. Is this true?

Grace

Dear Grace:

Older women who feel younger or when still younger persons call them by their first names will not hesitate to make it known that they want to be called by their first names.

There are other women who Elizabeth A. King who will be the same request because leaving Tuesday for Sao Paulo, they feel to be addressed by the Brazil to teach school. A June 1959, Mrs. King, suggests graduate of St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, Indiana, she is a young woman who is making many men who resent younger made by the Sisters of the Holy people calling them by their first names. They consider it an evidence of a lack of breeding and disrespect for a sister. Therefore, Grace, you would do well to follow your mother's advice and disregard that of your friend. For the rule applies whether you are eighteen or fifty. We do not call persons who are obviously our seniors by their first names unless they personally request us to do it.

Dear Miss Culklin:

What about a pink shirt? Do you think a fellow looks washed out if he wears one with a gray suit?

Dear Don:

A pink shirt looks better when complementing a suit of dark gray than one of a lighter shade. Pink and blue shirts, however, are more becoming for daytime than evening wear. When either pink or blue is worn at night, the colored shirt tends to appear as though it were lit like a freshly laundered white shirt but is not quite making it.

Dear Miss Culklin:

If you and your girlfriend have had an argument, how would you make up with her?

Lenner

Dear Lenner:

Shi will be teaching English and fine arts at the school and on weekends, she will do catechetical work in January. She will spend a month in the rugged interior of Brazil.

Elizabeth looks forward to seeing and meeting the people of Brazil since she believes this to be just as important to her art interests as doing her own art work. The use of lay teachers in the Brazilian school has never been tried before. Although she doesn't know quite what to expect, she is eagerly looking forward to her trip.

5,000 Miles To School

To Teach In Brazil

Teacher Wanted — Must be willing to travel more than 5,000 miles to school.

These words may well have attracted the attention of Miss Elizabeth A. King who will be the same request because leaving Tuesday for Sao Paulo, they feel to be addressed by the Brazil to teach school. A June 1959, Mrs. King, suggests graduate of St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, Indiana, she is a young woman who is making many men who resent younger made by the Sisters of the Holy people calling them by their first names. A Fine Arts graduate, Elizabeth A. King is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. King of 33 Country Club Dr. and a parishioner of St. Louis Parish, Pittsford.

SHE LEARNED of the need for teachers through her college president, Sister M. Madole, C.S.C., who initiated the program. The Holy Cross Sisters started the school as a mission more than 13 years ago near Sao Paulo.

Sister M. Olivette, C.S.C., was on her way to India when she was captured and imprisoned by the Japanese during World War II. Upon her release she went to Sao Paulo where she started the school and is still superior.

SINCE THEN the school has grown from a small mission to a full grade school, high school and junior college. Housed in modern buildings, the school has students from almost every economic class in Brazil.

Elizabeth looks forward to seeing and meeting the people of Brazil since she believes this to be just as important to her art interests as doing her own art work. The use of lay teachers in the Brazilian school has never been tried before. Although she doesn't know quite what to expect, she is eagerly looking forward to her trip.
